Senator for homeroom 56, Betty is the respected captain of the Twirlers, singer in Mixed Chorus and Senior Girls' Glee Club, and a member of La Vogue Ladies. French and U. S. History have been scholastic favorites. Skating and dancing are for fun. Career goal is to be dental assistant.

THERESA AFFLITTO

"That's My Desire" is the type of mood music that sends "Terry." She loves playing records and dancing; expects to become a clerk-typist. Favorites: classes, English and History; sports, baseball; TV shows, "Mike Hammer," "Dobie Gillis," "The Untouchables"; stars, John Saxon, Sandra Dee.

GEORGANN BAIRD

Ann is seen about school on hall patrol. She likes sewing, singing, dancing, and rock 'n roll music. "Three Bells" is the musical favorite. For sports she chooses basketball. Tab Hunter is her top actor. TV viewing includes "Dick Clark Show" and "Wagon Train."

BERNICE BASKERVILLE

"Bern" expresses unreserved approval of Chinese food and Italian spaghetti. One of our helpful members of Library Staff, she's enjoyed Health, Gym, and Sewing. The latter subject has influenced her to become a professional seamstress. Progressive jazz, kickball, basketball, and dancing are fun for her.

LAVERNE BECKOM

Laverne's greatest interest, educationally, is in the business field, especially accounting. She expects to become an IBM operator. A member of La Vogue Ladies, she enjoys skating, modern music, TV, and movies. Her favorite stars are Cary Grant and Elizabeth Taylor.

RICA BEATTY

"Don't worry about it," says "Squirt," especially if you serve her rice and steak. She isn't sure whether she'll be an office worker or a beautician, but she's certain she likes jazz and rock 'n roll. Bowling and swimming are the sports for her.

HARLENE BERMAN

Popular and capable, "Harl" has been Vice-President of her 3A class, vice and secretary of Science Club, secretary of Math Club. She's also a member of Biology Staff, Service and Photography Clubs. Clarinet player in Orchestra and Sr. Band, she's been a hospital volunteer, may become a medical secretary.

MARY BOHLER

Sewing and cooking are home-making skills Mary delights in. A valued member of Service Club, Modern Miss Club, and Optimist Staff, she likes English and all types of music. Singing in her church choir, watching sports and TV are recreations. She expects a clerical career.

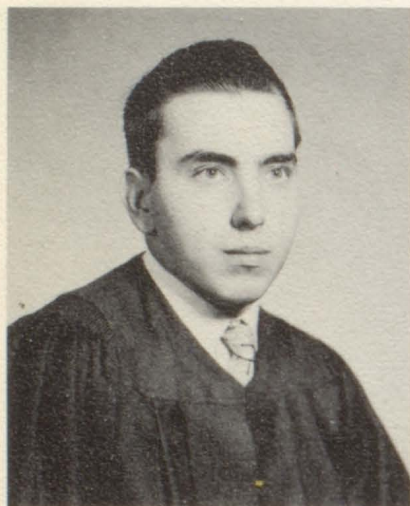

LOWELL BRAND

"Hey, hey!" says "Al." This future Newark fireman gets his kicks putting cars into first-rate shape. English and U. S. History are subjects he likes. For recreation, rock 'n roll and tunes like "Little Star". Basketball is his sports choice; "Tightrope" the top TV'er.

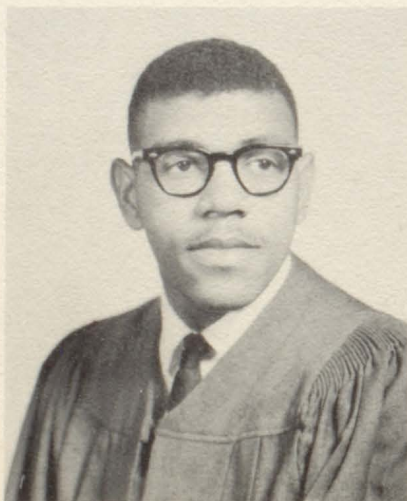

CHARITY BRANTLEY

A member of Polynesians and Rose Bud Circle #10, "Peaches" keeps busy in Metropolitan Young People's Choir and the Girls' Basketball League. She collects record albums, dotes on modern and progressive jazz. Watching baseball and football is fun. Charity hopes to study in an IBM school.

WILLIAM OLIVER
BREITENBACH III

"Never say die," opines "Big Time." Algebra and Mechanical Drawing have interested him in a career as mechanical or civil engineer. He's been tremendously active, as Senator and Captain of the Swimming Team, track and football varsity player, singer in Boys' Glee Club and Hilltop Recorder reporter.

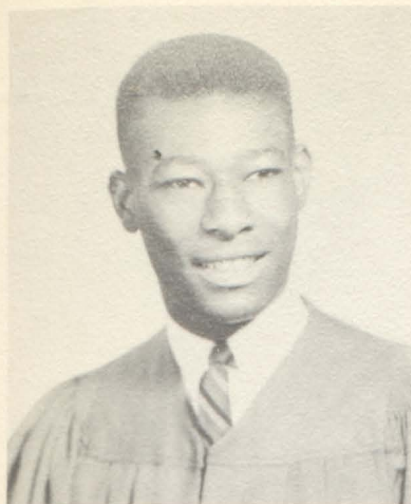

GLORIE BRIGGS

You'll often find "Glo" at the Community Center Canteen. She has enjoyed her mathematics courses and Shorthand at South Side. Business school is her post-graduation goal. Dancing's the hobby of hobbies. In the music line she gives her vote for "Flamingoes."

LARRY BROOKS

A member of the football, track, and basketball squads, Larry belongs to Omega Phi Epsilon, Polynesians, and the Hall Patrol. He plans to be a physical education teacher, lists gym as his favorite subject. See him at the milk bar enjoying a cheeseburger and a "terrible-terrible."

CARETHA BROTHERS

"Wait a minute," says Caretha, but this busy miss seems to have no minute to spare, what with Orchestra, Mixed Chorus, Girls' Glee Club, Cheerleaders, and La Vogue Ladies as activities. An able history student, Caretha plans to attend college. Skating and concert-going are her recreations.

CAROLYN BROTHERS

Carol's favorite saying, "Makes me no difference," does not apply to history and physics, her favorite subjects. This college-bound young lady, one of our charming cheerleaders, sings in Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club. She likes sewing, jazz, sports, and John Wayne.

MARY BUFORD

Mary's motto, "Haste makes waste," does not apply to her work as a Cheerleader, or her vigorous exertions on the Girls' Volleyball and Softball Teams. She is active socially in the Science Club, Latin Club, Essex Chapter of Xinas, Leaguers, Inc., and St. Philips Co-eds. A future therapist.

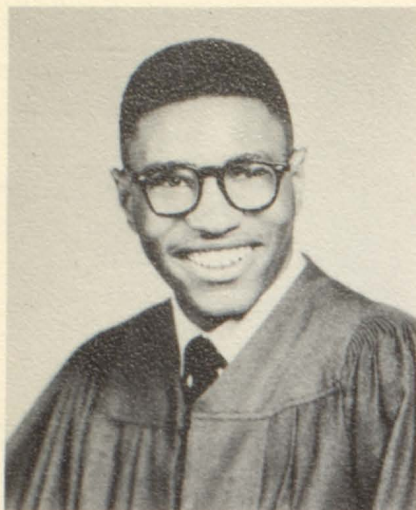

ELLEN CAPEZZERA

"Cappy's" capable and efficient work belies her favorite quote: "Did nothing in particular and did it very well." A member of Service Club and the 3A Executive Committee, this witty and popular miss loves music of the 30's and 40's. Secretarial work's her career choice.

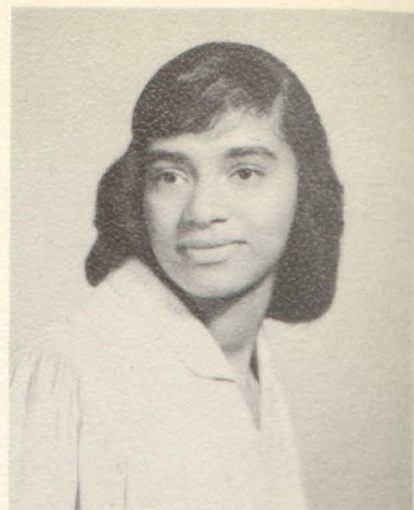

KATHALEEN BURKE

Commercial subjects have been most interesting for Kathy, with highest rating for Secretarial Practice and Accounting. Her expectation is to be a secretary-bookkeeper. Dancing, skating, and gossiping on the telephone are hobbies. Kathy likes the music from "South Pacific"; lists Connie Francis and Rock Hudson as top personalities.

WILLIAM CARRINGTON

Varsity member of Football and Track Teams, Will has served also as manager of the Basketball Team. He's played in Senior Band, showed preference for jazz music like "Alley-Oop." Woodworking is his hobby; his immediate goal is to join the U.S. Navy.

JOYCE CARTER

"J.C." has been class secretary and business manager, a member of Polynesians and Service Club. A future "government gal," she's popular at dances, enjoys kickball, softball, and swimming. Among her enthusiasms are rock 'n roll, "The Untouchables," "Mike Hammer," and Loretta Young.

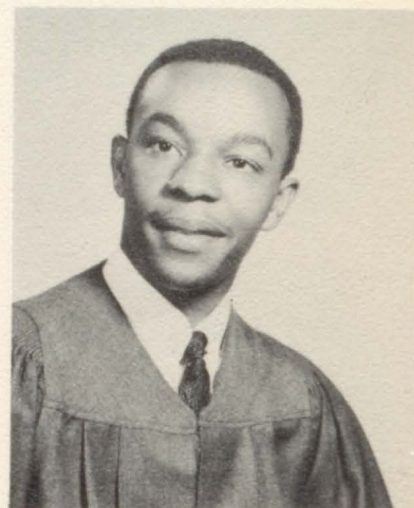

JOYCE CHARACTER

An admirer of Nina Simone, Cannonball Adderley, and Johnny Mathis, "J.C." has liked the subjects in the Commercial Department, plans to study in IBM School. She enjoys skating and traveling, thrillers on TV, and Robert Stack. Says she, "You'd better believe it."

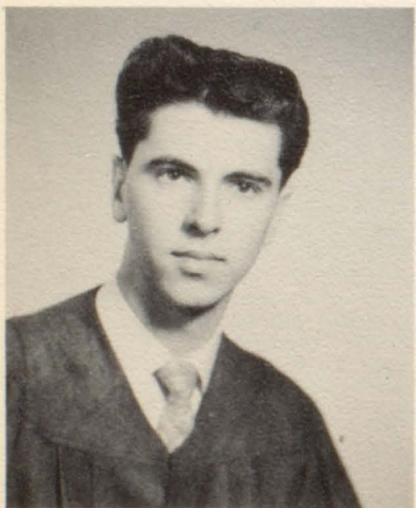

JOHN CHEEKS

For "Chic" service in the U.S. Army is next on the agenda. He's been a member of P.L.B.C. Potential Leader Boys' Club and a varsity player on the Basketball Team. U.S. History and English are favorite subjects. His musical tastes run to jazz and rock 'n roll.

RONALD CIRLINCIONE

Jazz and Dixieland are musical choices of "Ron," who plays in a four-piece band, enjoys being a member of the Swimming Team and Projection Staff. Skin-diving is his favorite sport. B. Bardot is a girl he'd like to be with. Hopes to make Air Force Academy.

JANET COLE

Senator and Optimist Staff member, "Jan" sings in her church choir and the Festival Chorus, loves to correspond with her friends. She expects to attend Newark Teachers College, to study elementary education. "Give to the world the best that you have, and the best will come back to you."

SHIRLEY COLLINS

"That's all right" is the reassuring word from "Red." All right with her are History, English, Office Practice. A devotee of cooking, she sings in her church choir, expects to become a beautician. Shirley likes baseball, basketball, "The Untouchables," and Clark Gable.

JUDITH COTTEN

Health and U. S. History have been Judy's most interesting subjects. A singer in Mixed Chorus, member of Service Club, Hilltop Recorder and Optimist Staff, she enjoys writing in her spare time, finds movies fascinating. Her leading actors: Joan Crawford, Mercedes McCambridge, and Sidney Poitier.

SARAH CUTTS

"Legs" plans career as a dietician, despite her present interest in music. She's president of a music club; has been associated with Starr-Allen T.V. Studio. Collecting jazz albums is her hobby; Speech and English are her class preferences. "Tell it like it is."

JUANITA DAVIS

"Doll's" immediate plans are for IBM school, but she hopes some day to be a model. A member of N.A.A.C.P. and singer in her church choir, she enjoys singing, skating, and bowling. Top tunes are "Love Me Tomorrow" and "It's All in My Mind." "Better Late Than Never—Better Yet, Be on Time," says she.

BRENDA DUNLAP

"Bren" advises us, "Take it slow, now." She's too busy to take her own advice, what with activities in N.A.A.C.P., The Co-Eds, Polynesian, Jr. Red Cross, and Band. Modern Dancing is her special hobby; U. S. History, Chemistry, Dance Class, favored studies. She'll make a good R.N.

MAXINE DAVIS

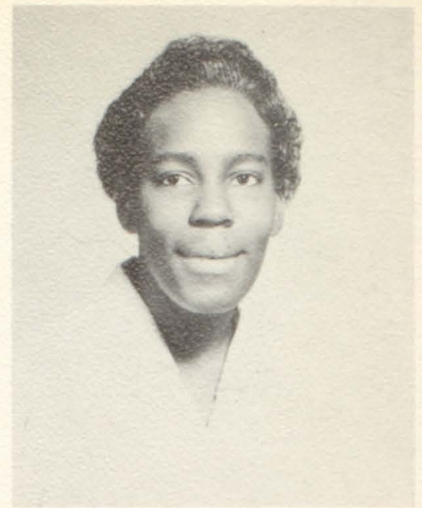

A nurse's aid and church choir singer, Maxine has a weakness for health and history. "Tell it like it is" is her favorite saying. She hopes to attend a business school after graduation. Maxine avers a liking for progressive jazz and Chinese food; thinks The Drifters best musical group.

CARRIE EVANS

Business school is the next goal for "Gonnie." Chairman of her church choir, she also sings in South Side's Sr. Girls' Glee Club and Mixed Chorus, and belongs to the Polynesians. A fan of swimming and football, she's known for long conversations on the telephone.

CAROLYN GEE

A girl who loves to sing, Carolyn employs her talents in her church choir and in Junior and Senior Girls' Glee Clubs. She's been a member of Polynesians and a fan of South Side's athletic teams. Sewing and listening to records are hobbies. Future: Essex County Technical School.

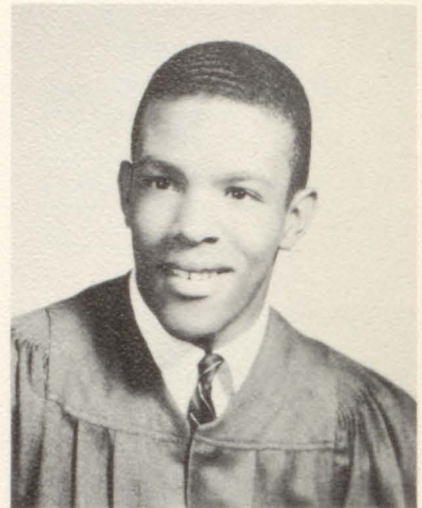

CHARLES GERBER

President of his 3A Class, member of Math Club and Stage Crew, "Dion" is headed for Montclair State College to become a teacher of mathematics. Guess his favorite subject. Hint: he spends spare time reading math books. Saus he: "Asi es la vida (such is life)."

CHARLES HACKLEY

"I'm hip," proclaims "Chucky," whose musical loves are progressive jazz and rock 'n roll. He enjoys participating in small-group and choral singing; carries his rhythm over to the Basketball Team. Algebra and Trig are favored subjects. He likes public-affairs and drama programs on TV.

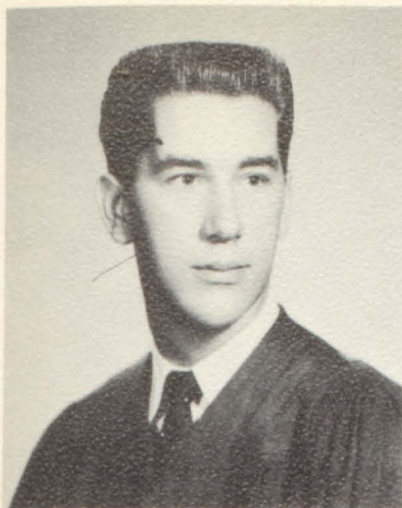

DOLORES HOLMES

A member of Library Staff and La Femina, "Dip" sings in her church choir, enjoys sewing, reading, and dancing. Music is a big interest, with "Never Let Me Go" and "Just for a Thrill" the top tunes. After South Side, she hopes to attend a secretarial school.

LULA HOBBS

Lula belongs to the Junior League, N.A.A.C.P., and Modern Miss Club. She plans to become a nurse. "You can make it if you try," says Lula. She tries to follow this motto with her favorite sport, tennis, and favorite school subjects, Algebra and Typewriting.

RICHARD JAMEISON

"Why not?" asks "Rich." A member of Soccer Team, Latin Club, Physics Staff and Projection Staff, he's enjoyed work in Chemistry, Physical Education, and U. S. History. Fishing and water skiing are the favorite sports. Favorite actress: B. Bardot. He expects to study engineering at Rutgers.

BARBARA JEFFERSON

Pretty Barbara, a dance-loving member of Jive-ettes, has a serious post-graduation goal — attending nursing school. Service in the Junior Red Cross, singing in Mixed Chorus, and working in Service Club are some of her activities. A football fan, she likes the acting of Rory Calhoun.

VERDIE JOHNSON

Verdie, a Modern Miss, is on Optimist Staff and a member of Polynesians. She likes gym and history, singing in her church choir, jazz, and rock 'n roll. "Bourbon St. Beat" and "Record Wagon" are part of Verdie's TV viewing. Next in sight: I.B.M. School.

FLEMING THOMAS JOHNSON

"Aint that something?" asks Tommy. His musical interest certainly is. A lover of concert music, he plays piano, is a member of Band and Orchestra, sings in Rev. L. Roberts' Voices of Faith Choir. In addition, he's varsity in both track and football!

CLAIRE KARPf

Claire has a worthwhile ambition — to teach the blind. Nicknamed "Clairoil," she belongs to Band, Orchestra, and Service Club. History, Chemistry, jazz, rock 'n roll, football, and basketball are all favorites with Claire. TV and movies are recreations. Her saying: "Love is strange."

ODESSA JONES

Music, history, and math interest "Des," who sings in Mixed Chorus and her church choir. She belongs to Polynesians and the P.T.S.A. President of homeroom 59, Odessa collects records, enjoys watching all sports, TV, and movies. After graduation, she expects to work at Bell Telephone Company.

DONALD KONDROSKI

Don plays on the Soccer Team, enjoys football, baseball, and basketball also. Science and Biology Clubs hold his interest and point to his future career, work in electronics. His hobby is customizing cars; his recreations, listening to popular music, watching TV thrillers.

CATHERINE LAWRENCE

For this Senator and future social workers Library Staff and La Vogue Ladies have been interesting activities. Cathy likes to watch basketball, enjoys jazz, Jeff Chandler's acting, sewing. She goes for TV programs, especially "Twilight Zone," "Shotgun Slade," and "Bergen Street Beat."

DALE EMILY LAYTON

"Toni" is a member of the Choir and Dramatic Club of New Hope Baptist Church. Spanish Club, Algebra, and Typewriting have been South Side favorites. She likes surprise ending of Alfred Hitchcock TV thrillers; aims for Hampton Institute or a modeling school.

CAROL Le DOUX

Bowling and collecting records are favored hobbies of "Snookie." She's partial to "Till the End of Time" and "Tonight, Tonight." Regarding classes, she gives the nod to Health, U. S. History, and English. After graduation she intends to head for business school and an office career.

ARLENE LEVELL

"Lean" loves skating and the movies (especially Jeff Chandler), has enjoyed U. S. history and all her math courses. She sings in her church choir and is active in C.Y.O. Senator and Service Club member, she isn't sure about whether to be a nurse or business woman.

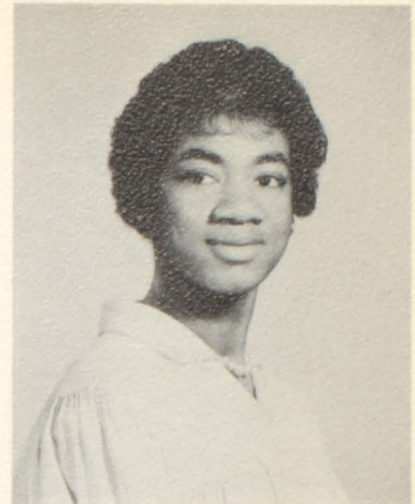

THELMA MARCH

Member of Polynesians, F.B.L.A., and Twirlers, "Thel" sings in Mixed Chorus and the Antrones Singing Group. She's enjoyed Y.W.C.A., Typewriting, Stenography, and English. Sewing and record collecting are hobbies. Her sports are swimming, tennis, and skating. Business college beckons for Thelma.

BETTY MASON

A Senator, Betty is on the Library Staff. "You must be a fool," she says, but we know Betty isn't. Planning to take a course in practical nursing, she's a rock 'n roll and modern jazz fan. She'll be playing tennis in her spare time.

DOROTHY McCRAY

Church choir-singer "Dotty" has been a member of Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club, a regular in the Spanish Club. Her aim is to study dress designing at the Essex County Vocational School. Naturally, Clothing has been her choice class. "What's to it?" she asks.

EUNICE McKNIGHT

We hope Eunice's motto applies to her ambition to become a registered nurse. Says she: "Today we sail on the seas of ambition; tomorrow we land on the shore of success." She is known and loved as Student Banker, member of Library Staff and Girls' Glee Club.

VERA METCHNIK

"You only live once," says Vera. National Honor Society membership attests to her intelligence; 3A class secretaryship shows she's popular. History, tennis, ice skating, swimming, and popular music are some of her favorites. "Adventures in Paradise" is her TV choice. Nursing is the career she's picked.

MOLLY GENEVA McMOORE

Jean's expectation is that she'll be a typist or file clerk. A Library Staffer, she belongs to Jazz Club, sings in a choir. Jazz and rock 'n roll are musical staples. Basketball and tennis are her sports. She's proud to be a part of the March on Leukemia.

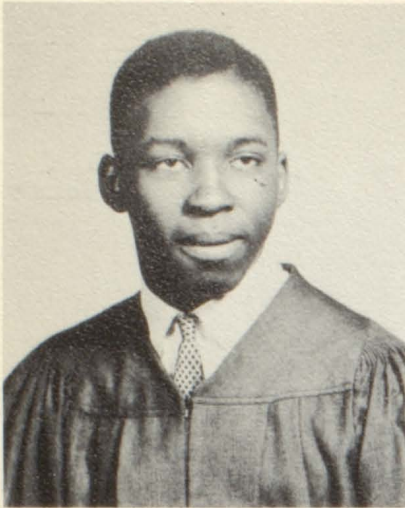

MARY ANN MERWIN

Skating, dancing, and reading are favorite hobbies of Mary Ann. She's enthusiastic about mathematics, especially geometry, and plans to attend Newark State College at Union. She has been a member of Service Club and class executive committees. Why is "I'm in the Mood for Love" her favorite song?

ABRAHAM MICKENS

To "Bobby" post-graduation includes the goal of becoming a police officer. History and English have been the most engrossing subjects for this fan of jazz, baseball, and football. Reading is Abraham's main recreation. He lists Clark Gable and Jane Wyman as acting favorites.

HATTIE LOUISE MILLER

A real songster, "Dimpy" serves in Madrigals, Mixed Chorus, Senior Girls' Glee Club, and Young People's Choir of Hopewell Baptist Church. Optimist Staff, Hill-top Recorder, and The Boosters have benefited from her skills, as has Girls' Softball Team. A Chemistry fan, she hopes to attend Virginia State College.

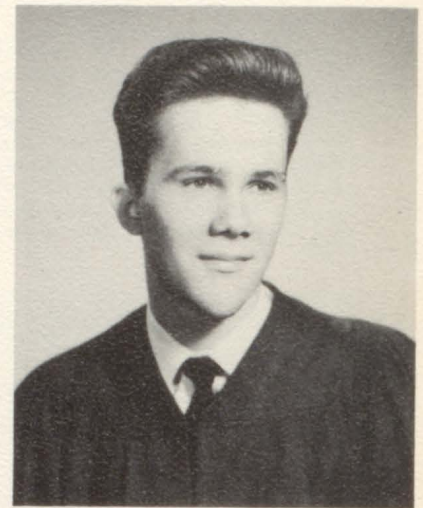

JOCELYN MOORE

A business career is just around the corner for Jocelyn, who's a member of Service Club, a singer in Mixed Chorus, and a spark-plug of the Cheerleaders. This Senator likes English, Stenography, and Bookkeeping among school subjects. Skating and basketball are her favorite sports.

STANLEY WALTER OMELCZUK

"Originality and Individualism First" is Walt's motto. A member of the Keansburg CYO, he plays guitar and writes songs as hobbies. U. S. History and English are class favorites. Basketball, swimming, horseback riding, and ice skating are sports choices. Instrumental music moves him.

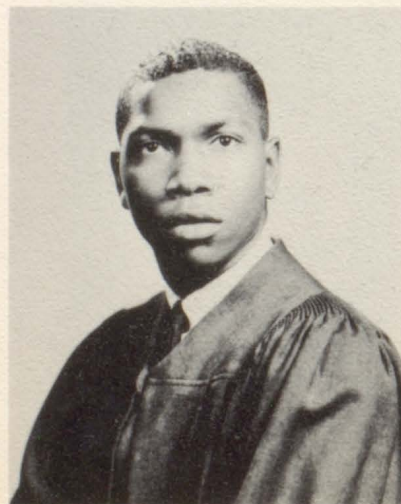

YVONNE PATTERSON

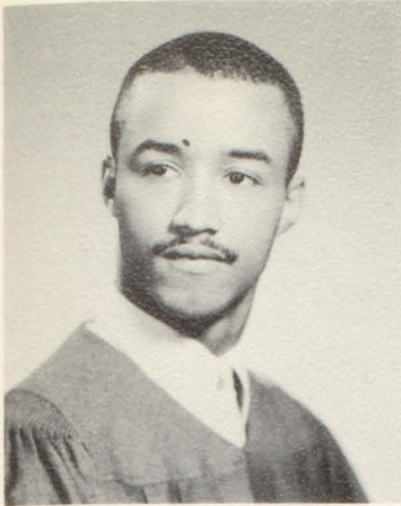

Since "Vonnie" always says, "Tell it as it is," we will. She's a happy listener to rock 'n roll and popular music. During her spare time, you might find her looking at "The Untouchables." In sports it's football or basketball for South Side's future typist.

EDWARD PARSONS

Eddie's favorite saying is "There you go!" He plans to go to the Marine Corps. He's had fun singing in "The Supremes," listening to jazz, especially Austin's "Danny Boy." Football and basketball are sports he enjoys watching. Same can be said of Lana Turner.

MELVIN PHILLIPS

"Let's Take It Nice and Easy" is a favorite tune of "Spike"—and a good characterization. A member of Junior Leaguers and Omega Phi Epsilon, he favors History and English, plans to become a postal clerk. Track and football are preferred sports.

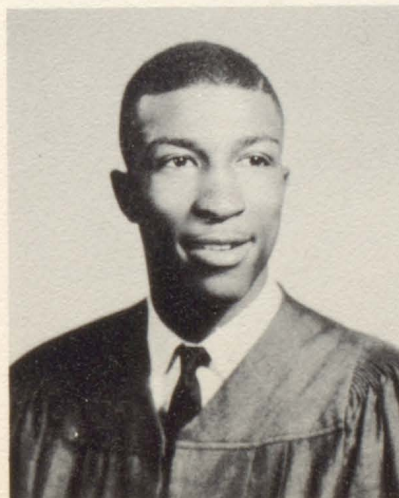

NANCY RAINEY

Nan has enjoyed the Saturday course in Arts High on costume construction. A sewing enthusiast, she plans to attend a fashion designing school. U. S. History, football, basketball, and jazz music have been favorites. Top tune: "Tell Me Today"; top food: shrimp and French fries.

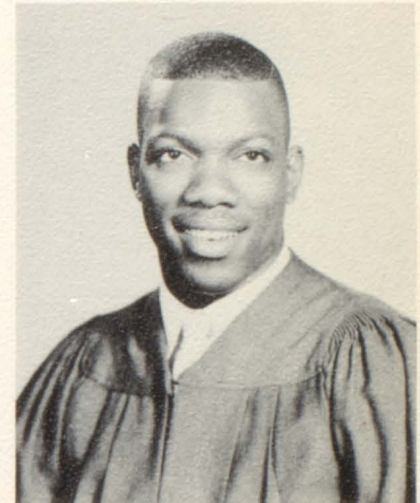

GODFREY ROBINSON

Mechanical Drawing is a subject that has influenced "Jeff." He plans a career in drafting. Fan of football and basketball, Godfrey indulges a passion for popular songs like "Just Two Kinds of People." His TV favorite is "Huckleberry Hound"; his favorite actress is Elizabeth Taylor.

ALEXANDER QUEEN, JR.

"The Big A" intends to join the Air Force, then attend college. A member of Sr. Band, Mixed Chorus, the Track Team, and Spanish Club, he lists his hobbies as dancing, football, and basketball. Favorite TV shows are "Alcoa Presents" and "Tightrope."

CYRIL DOUGLAS REED

Busy "Cero" belongs to the Boys' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, Polynesian, Washington Carver Drum and Bugle Corps; is on his class executive committee. He can often be found at a milk bar. Interested in history, sales, and health, he favors the sports of football and skating.

ADA ROYSTER

"Think twice before acting," says "Puddin." Vice-President of her class, she anticipates attending nursing school. Music's her meat. Ada sings in a church choir and in South Side's Madrigals and Mixed Chorus, loves songs by the Skyliners and Frank Sinatra. Sidney Poitier, anytime.

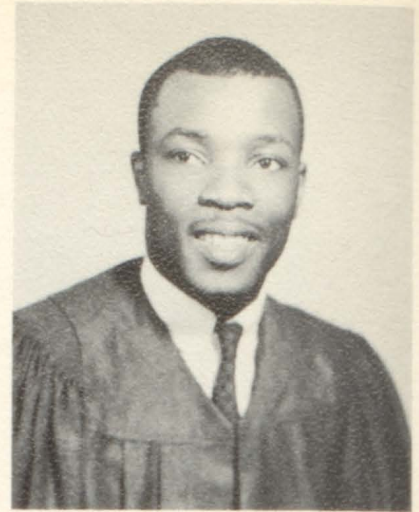

LUZ MARIA SANTIAGO

"Lucy" will make a good advertisement for the beauty culture school she attends. An avid member of Spanish Club, she likes to read and to listen to soft music on the radio. "Yo Tengo Tu Amor" is her favorite melody. Felipe Rodriguez sings to her heart.

PAUL SIMMONS

Paul rejoices in the nickname of "Baldiney." He sees a future in machine operating. A member of Viking A.S.C., he enjoys football and baseball, responds to rock 'n roll. TV favorite is "The Untouchables"; favorite actor is Art Carney. "Live and Let Live," says Paul.

EVELYN SKIPPER

"Education is man's greatest asset." To live up to this quotation "Evvy" prepares for a job as a psychiatric social worker. Now, active Evelyn is a Library Aid, belongs to the Spanish Club and Hilltop Recorder Staff. Out-of-school membership includes Xinas, Leaguers, and M.Y.T.

ELAINE SIMS

Fan of Harry Belafonte, "Mooch" loves modern music, especially the score of "Porgy and Bess." Member of Xinas of Essex County and our school Service Club, she has found Spanish and Stenography of greatest interest, hopes to attend secretarial school after graduation.

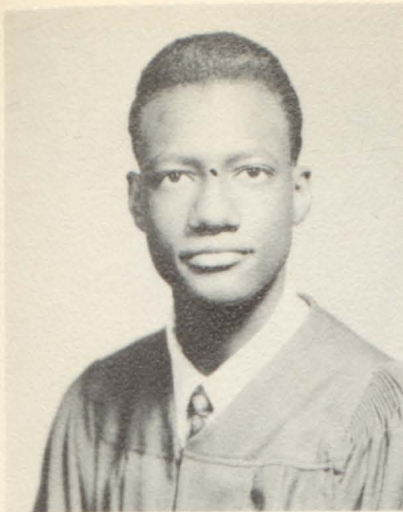

ELEANOR SPENCE

Math and Record Keeping have been "Nora's" choice subjects, and she'll continue them in business school. As a member of B.Y.P.U. and St. Philip's Youth Center she's had fun. Further recreation comes from singing and sewing, cheering South Side's athletic teams.

PATRICIA SPRUILL

Church Choir and the Polyne-sians S.C. claim "Pat." She loves popular tunes and jazz. "Ooh Poop Pah Doo," "Tell Me To-day," and "The Wind" thrill her. She's crazy about Italian food, especially spaghetti and meatballs. Loves to hear Marv Johnson and Jessie Hill records. Business school in view.

NATHANIEL STACKHOUSE

"Everything's copasetic," says Nate, a basketball player and future member of the armed forces. He likes music, especially jazz, and has sung in Boys' Glee Club. English is his favorite subject, "The Untouchables" his top TV program. Kirk Douglas is Nate's star.

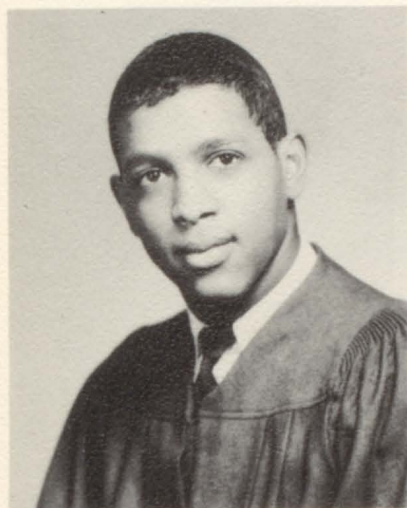

HORACE STOKES

Student Banker Horace serves the community by collecting for Polio and other disease-prevention funds. A member of the Parisians, he plays piano, loves all types of music. He enjoys parties, golf, and tennis. Favored among stars are Cary Grant and Sandra Dee.

DURELL SUTTON

Mechanical Drawing is Durell's favorite class, football his top sport. "Be cool, daddy," says "Xavier." He's a jazz enthusiast, a member of 20th Century Hawks, an admirer of Elliot Ness and "The Untouchables." Choice tunes are "Shopping for Clothes" and "Searching."

BEVERLY JEAN TAYLOR

"Bev" has been very active in South Side. Cheerleader, member of the Science, German, and Latin Clubs, Library Staffer, and orchestral musician, she's enthusiastic about English, Chemistry, and Geometry. Music lessons, scouting, membership in youth councils also fill her life. Future plans: Douglas College or Boston U.

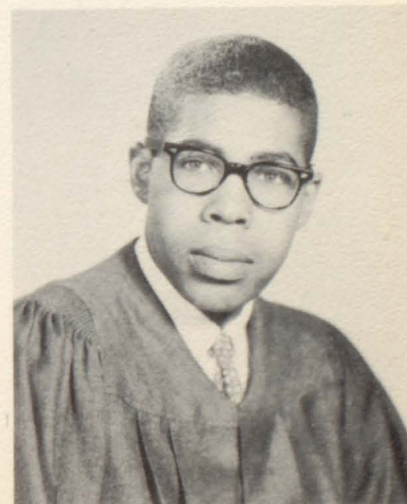

ROBERT TYLER

Bill hopes there is an Air Force uniform ready for him. He has been interested in model airplanes, the Young Democrats Club of N. J., U. S. History, English, and singing in the Dauphine Choral Group. Favorite tunes: "Enchanted," "Ally-Oop"; favorite expression: "You know."

DIANE WEILER

"Dee" holds that "God helps those who help themselves." A member of the executive committees of several classes, she has specialized in commercial courses at South Side, expects to attend a business college in the future. Her hobby has been collecting different types of salt and pepper shakers.

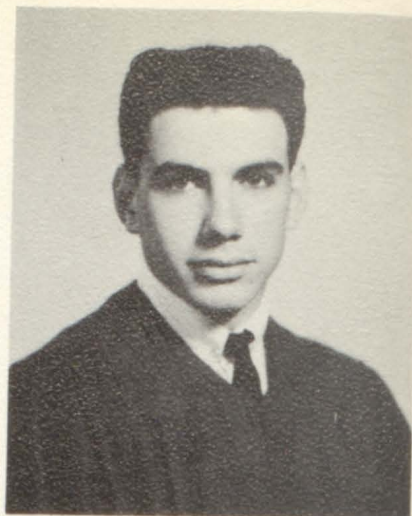

HARVEY WEINBERG

Member of Projection Staff, Student Banker, "Big Harv" aims to become manager of a supermarket. He admires jazz, especially tunes like "Mack the Knife." Among his likes are football, horse racing, bowling, TV's "Twilight Zone," and actress Elizabeth Taylor.

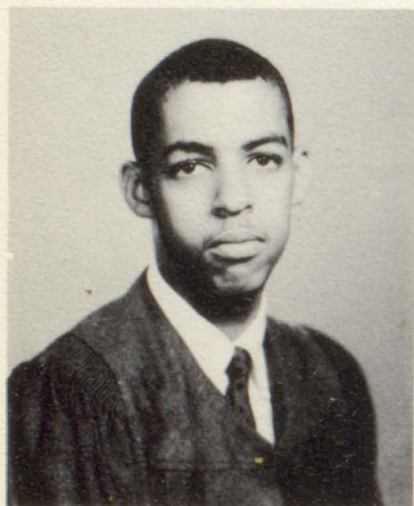

MARTIN WERNER

Class treasurer "Mort" has won varsity letters in baseball, basketball, and soccer; belongs to YM-YWHA. His aptitude in English and History should help him at Montclair State College. Work on Projection Staff coincides with his love of movies. As hobbies he lists bowling and golf.

KEITH WHITE

"Rab" inquires, "Like what's happening?" He hopes it will soon be attendance at Howard University and study toward an accounting degree. A partisan of three-inch steaks and Shakespearean plays, he's served on GO patrol, is a member of Young Men's Republican Association.

JANET WILKINS

"Jan's" inclinations are domestic. She dotes on preparing her own food specialties and in sewing. Mixed Chorus, Library Staff, and the Viscounts value her membership. Rock 'n roll and skating are top hobbies. After South Side her education will be continued at a business college.

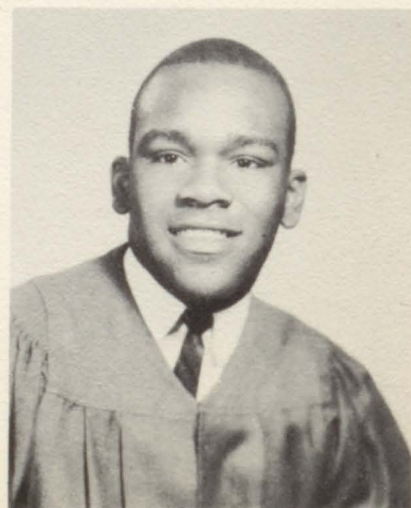

MELVIN WILLIAMS

Indoor Track star "Smiley" feels, "To have a friend, you must be one." That he is appreciated is shown by his election to class presidency. That he's an expert singer is shown by membership in New Jersey All-State Chorus, Boys' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, and Madrigals.

LORRAINE WILLIAMS

A Youth Member of N.A.A.C.P., "Dimples" loves rock 'n roll, enjoys singing in Girls' Glee Club, playing on Girls' Baseball Team. Law, English, Health, and Physical Education have been her favorite classes. Another fan for Sidney Poitier. "Hal Hal" says Lorraine.

GLORIA WILSON

For "Glo" IBM School is future prospect. She's been a professional model for two years; loves sewing, skating, and dancing. A Cheerleader, she is naturally a fan of football and basketball. Accounting and Sales were top classes. "Be sure you're right; then go ahead."

MARTIN ZAPRAUSKIS

A member of the Soccer Team, Martin belongs to the Math Club and the Chemistry Staff. History, Geography, and Chemistry are his favorite subjects, soccer his favorite sport. "Maverick," "Twilight Zone," and "Alcoa Presents" are tops in TV. A future in the Army is for him.

Mr. Petitti and the General Organization Senate.

COUNSELOR
Mrs. Gladys McCormick

ADVISER
Mrs. Ruth Ringel

4-B OFFICERS
Lois Kinch, Treasurer;
Freddie Mae Lee, Secretary;
George LaSure, President;
Joyce Brinson, Vice-President.

4B ORGANIZATION

4-B EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

ROSALYN AMOS

If you have cheeseburgers, you can tempt Rosalyn. She's a member of Mixed Chorus, Spanish Club, Library Staff, and The Conservatives. Chums are Joan, Carol, Lonnie, and Taffy. Her vote for TV watching is Danny Thomas or Peter Gunn. School in her future: business or beauty culture.

BARBARA ANN ARRINGTON

"Here we go," exclaims "Barnabie." Where? Rutgers, to become a social worker. GO Senator and member of Service Club, she sings in Mixed Chorus, Senior Girls' Glee Club, and her church choir. In addition, she's a Senior Girl Scout, and has been treasurer of her class.

LILLIE MAE ALSTON

Calm and conscientious, Lillie Mae has the qualities for her chosen profession, nursing. A member of Spanish Club, Girls' Softball Team, and Senior Girls' Glee Club, her hobby is sewing (and she's an expert). "Pan" goes for rock 'n roll, with Jackie Wilson as musical favorite.

REGINA BALDWIN

"Jeanne" plans for herself a career in nursing. Her hobbies are diverse: cooking and sewing, listening to modern jazz and rock 'n roll, playing on the Girls' Softball Team, and singing in her church's Young People's Choir. An Optimist Staff member, she enjoys sports, TV, and movies.

MARY ASHFORD

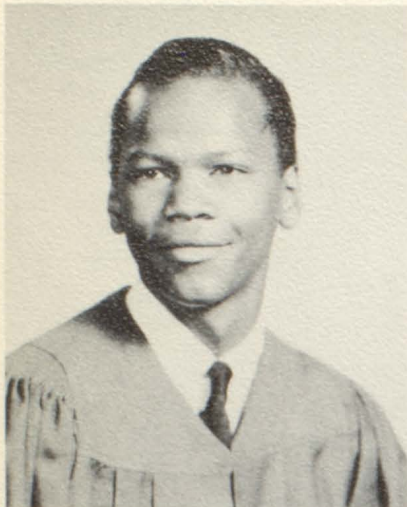

For "Lil" the motto is, "Live and let live." She's been in Jr. Red Cross, Service Club, Optimist Staff, and Conservatives. She dislikes phoney people, likes U. S. History, English, TV, baseball, skating and fried chicken. In her future is business school.

BEVERLEY BARKLEY

Dancing to "I'll Remember April" or "That's All," "Bev" may not seem to be the serious student type who's thrilled by linguistics, especially Spanish, and who plans to head for a teachers college after graduation. She has been a member of Service Club, a fan of all kinds of sports.

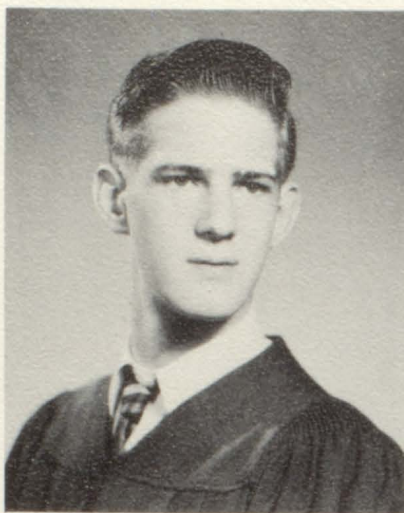

ELWOOD BAYLIS

Typing, Machine Operations, Mechanical Drawing, and Art have been the mainstays of this future Marine. He's swum for the Swimming Team, sung in singing groups, and been a member of The Caliphs. Favorite actors are Sidney Poitier, Victor Mature, and Burt Lancaster.

THOMAS BEEH

A member of South Side's Projection Staff, Thomas likes fishing, swimming, baseball, and football. When he isn't showing movies, he enjoys watching them. About his nickname, "B" has this to say: "To be a Bee or not to be a Bee." Physics is his favorite subject.

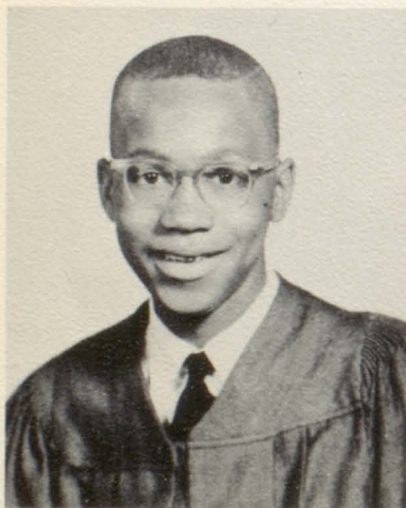

LAURA BERMUDEZ

Laura loves all types of music, especially "My Heart Has a Mind of its Own." Her favorite subjects are stenography and typing. Sewing and crocheting prove absorbing hobbies. Laura expects to become a beautician. "Don't leave for tomorrow what you can do today," says she.

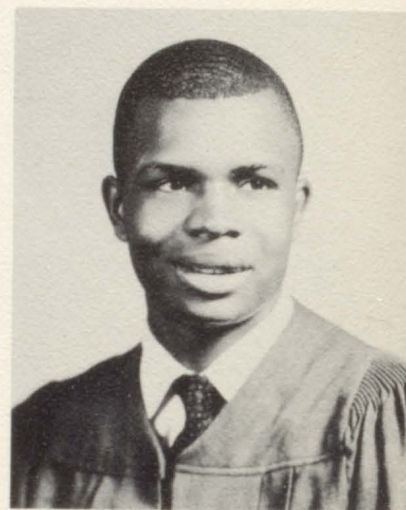

DOUGLAS BIGHAM

"Mack" plays in the Dance Band, and finds enjoyment in all kinds of music. History has been his favorite subject, baseball his top sport. TV's best show for him is "Danny Thomas." Tom Ewell is Douglas' star actor. His ultimate goal is accountancy.

MARIE BRACEY

Twirler "Riba" is known for exclaiming, "Oh, my soul!" and for her work in Garden Club and School Bankers. She makes harmony in her church choir; loves singing spirituals, dancing, and sewing. In jazz music she prefers Ahmad Jamal. Career choice: secretary.

ARTHUR BRIDGEFORTH

Athletic Arty, member of the football, basketball, and baseball squads, is a man who plans to go a long way—to Ohio's Central State College. He plays in the Elks Drum and Bugle Corps, relaxes to jazz and rock 'n' roll. Favored tunes: "Quiet Village," "White Silver Sands."

ELAINE BROWN

A member of the Future Business Leaders of America, Elaine is a future private secretary. Her favorite subjects have been U. S. History and Stenography. She enjoys rock 'n roll, cha-cha, mambo, and jazz, finds "The Wind" and "I'll Be Seeing You" fascinating tunes.

IDA BROWN

"That's life!" is Ida's favorite expression. In her life Cheerleaders and Conservatives have been important. Ditto U. S. History, English, skating, food, and television. She's frequently seen with Cecilia and Marilyn. Her plans are to acquire supplementary education at business school.

JOYCE BRINSON

"What's happening?" asks "Wendi." To her, much has happened. President of Aurora Fawns, Captain of Cheerleaders, Senator, Treasurer of Spanish Club, member of Boosters, and singer in Mixed Chorus, she's been busy, but has had time for the hobbies of sewing and swimming. College-bound is she.

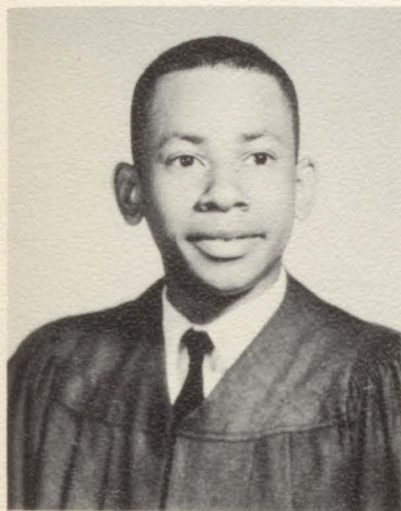

SHIRLEY BROWN

"Nothing beats a failure but a trier," opines "Legs." An aspiring fashion designer, she delights in sewing, dancing, and skating, finds recreation in watching baseball and listening to all sorts of music. She's served as aid in the Guidance Office and been a member of Conservatives.

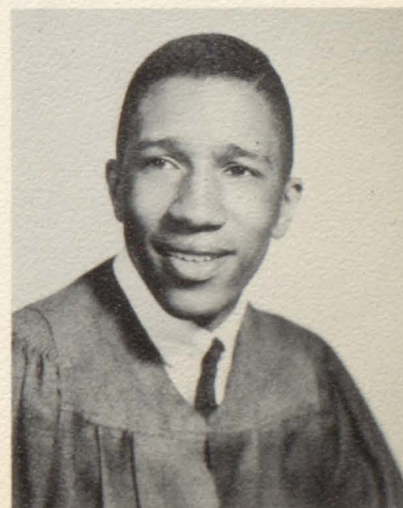

WILLIAM BROWN

Football, baseball, track, and basketball are the favorite sports of William Brown, who is on the Baseball Team. He likes Geometry and Physics best in school. "Sonny," a member of the Conservatives, will enjoy any type of good music — and TV shows with plenty of action.

JAMES BROWN

"Hey, hey," calls Jimmy, "run the game on down!" He hopes to attend college; at South Side is a fan of the football, basketball, and baseball squads. Jazz music sends him. James prefers humor programs on television; is a fan of Sidney Poitier and Dorothy Dandridge.

DORA BRUTON

Dora has enjoyed working on the Hilltop Recorder and studying English and Health. A rock 'n roll fan, she lists Jackie Wilson and The Five Satins as favored performers. Among games, baseball and basketball hold her favor. In her future she sees secretarial work.

JOHN BURKE

Johnny's been busy working after school, with an eye on attending college after graduation. A member of Safety Squad, he's liked English, considers basketball the most interesting sport to watch. As a jazz fan, he favors "Mr. Lucky" and "Sister Sadie." Gina Lolabrigida—mmm.

GLADIS BURKS

The secretary of the Junior Red Cross is Vice-President of the Optimist Staff. A member of the Library Staff and Advisory Teen Council, Gladis is also secretary to the English Department Chairman. Having held five class offices, she's ready for any responsibilities life in the Armed Forces holds.

CYNTHIA CAMPBELL

"Cynt" hopes to attend college, and to continue there her National Society status. A Cheerleader, member of PTSA, Service Club, and F.B.L.A., she sings in Young People's Choir of Union Chapel A. M. Church. Present intentions are to teach business subjects.

PATRICIA ANN BURROWES

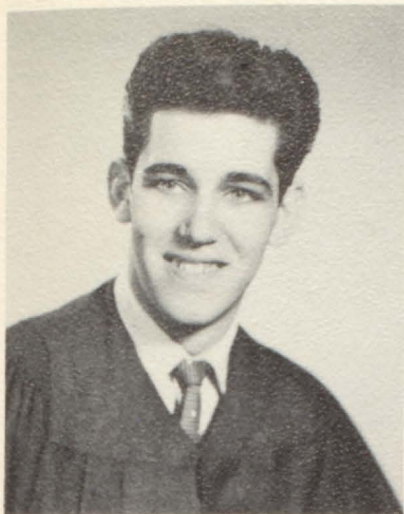

Pat likes to attend meetings of the C.Y.O., play tennis, bowl, and skate. She studies history and stenography with greatest interest, for she hopes to become a law secretary. Her popularity poll: music—"Tonight, Tonight," "When You Wish Upon a Star"; TV—"Father Knows Best," "The Untouchables."

BARBARA ANN CARTER

Teachers college is "Bebop's" goal. A member of Cheerleaders, Jr. Red Cross (assistant secretary), Optimist Staff, La Vogue Ladies, and Conservatives, she's enthusiastic about music. Barbara sings in Mixed Chorus and her church choir; enjoys classical, jazz, rock 'n roll alike.

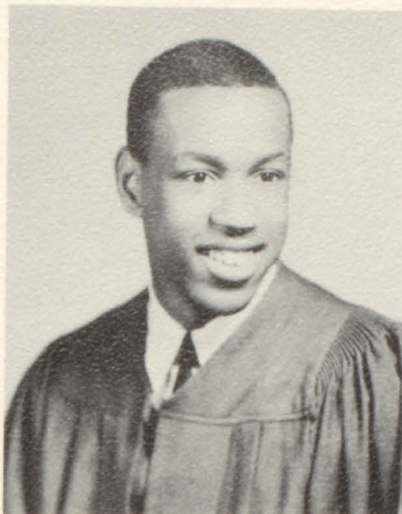

WILBUR COEYMAN

A Senator, Safety Squad member, and varsity player on the Baseball, Basketball, and Soccer Teams, Wilbur is aiming for Newark College of Engineering. His aptitude in Mechanical Drawing and Physics will be of service there. Spare-time activities are bowling, TV, jazz music, and movies.

EDWARD CHISONE

A member of the Basketball Team and Omega Phi Epsilon, "Chis" enjoys reading Shakespeare and collecting records. Algebra, Plane Geometry, and English, his favorite subjects, will serve him well at the University of Connecticut. His claim: "Known by the teachers for being very quiet."

HORTENSE COX

"Hort" is active in the work of her church and has the serious goal of becoming a registered nurse. Painting is one major hobby; listening to jazz is another. Among musicians she favors Milt Jackson and Duke Ellington. Driver Education and Health are classes she remembers most fondly.

MILDRED COTTON

"Cookie" has been a busy girl as a member of Girls' Softball Team, Conservatives, Romperettes S.C., Satan Cadets Color Guard, Satan Cadets Drum and Bugle Corps, and Treasurer of French IV Club. She enjoys basketball and track, hopes to attend college and become a teacher of physical education.

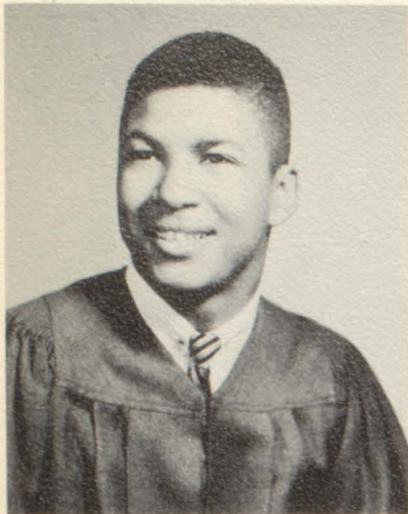

DOUGLAS COMPTON

"If you don't know, who does?" asks "Buggie." He knows his ambition is to become a fireman. A member of the Hall Patrol, Douglas lists Mechanical Drawing as his best subject. Listening to radio and tape recorder is his hobby; on these he loves to hear "Cathy's Clown."

GWENDOLYN CROWDER

"Hey, hey!" is Gwendolyn's favorite expression—one we hope she does not use in her future career as a telephone operator. A devotee of the blues (her favorite, "All I Could Do Was Cry"), she has enjoyed Bookkeeping at South Side, is a fan of "The Untouchables."

JAMES CROWDER

A football stalwart, "Timba" loves dancing to the blues and rock 'n roll. Chemistry is the class for him; John Wayne the top actor. Now he's a member of the Streaks; in the future he expects to be a member of the Marine Corps.

LENORE CRUMPLER

"Tootsie" has enjoyed membership in French Club, Service Club, and Aurora Fawns. For Cheerleader Lenore the career in view is nursing. Favorites: hobby, sewing; music, rock 'n roll; school subjects, U. S. History and English; sports, football and basketball; TV program, "The Untouchables."

DELORES CRUTCHER

"De" sings in Young People's Choir of First Baptist Church. For listening, she likes the Ray Charles Singers in "Georgia," and The Flamingoes in "Diamonds and Pearls." Sewing's her hobby. Math and English pleased her in school; Tony Curtis, in the movies. "That's all right."

MARIE CULVER

A member of her class executive committee, F.B.L.A., and teacher's aid, Marie believes that "A good example is the best sermon." Stenography, Typing, U. S. History, and English top this National Honor Society girl's classes. Dancing is fun. Ditto, "Wagon Train" and Tony Curtis movies.

HELEN DAVIS

The Hilltop Recorder will miss "Mary's" devoted service. Miss Davis knits while she watches her favorite sport, basketball. Gospel singing and rock 'n roll are her musical loves. Speech is the course she prefers. Helen enjoys drama on TV, lists Debbie Reynolds as top actress.

MARIE DAVIS

Off to Pratt University, Brooklyn, to become a fashion designer! Marie's been PTSA representative, a member of Girls' Baseball Team, Conservatives, Jr. Red Cross, Optimist Staff, and her class executive committee. Outside of school she attends art school, belongs to a singing group.

RONALD DAVIS

"Ronnie" has been a player in two South Side activities: Football Team and Senior Band. A Conservative, he's done best in history classes, enjoyed pop tunes, pork chops, pork and beans. Glen Ford is his favorite star. He looks forward to service in the Marines.

JOHN DONAGHY

"Practice makes perfect," opines "Shawn." He's a quiet fellow who puts his theory into practice; impresses teachers and fellow-students with his industry and friendliness. Basketball and baseball are sports in which he's won varsity rating. He relaxes by watching TV's "Red Skelton Show" and "Men Into Space."

ADELINE DESKINS

French, typing, and algebra are Adeline's favorite subject. She has decided to become a clerk or a typist. In sports, you'll find "Addy" swimming or playing tennis. Dancing and chess are other activities she enjoys. All types of tunes delight her, "especially dreamy music."

GLORIA DOCK

"You reap what you sow," says "Dockie." Her sowing at South Side includes Girls' Basketball Team, Dramatics, Junior Red Cross, Optimist, and Mixed Chorus. In addition, she sings in her church choir and is a Senior Scout. After graduation, IBM School beckons. Then, of course, a business career.

JAMES DORTCH

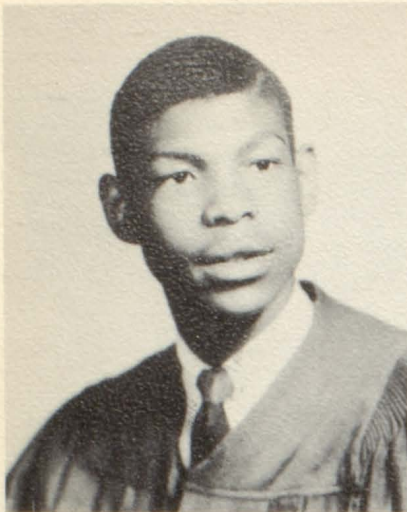

"Tico" is a varsity member of the Basketball Team; plays in Senior Band, Concert Band, and Marching Band; sings in The Manguals. His favorite tune, "Just a Lonely Soldier," may be prophetic: he expects to join the U.S. Army. "Hey, hey, run the game!" he exclaims.

DORIS EDWARDS

This jazz and rock 'n roll lover is in South Side's Service Club. The Girls' Softball Team is another of "Pug's" time-takers. In her spare time she'll head for the television. Doris plans to take a course in beauty culture after she graduates.

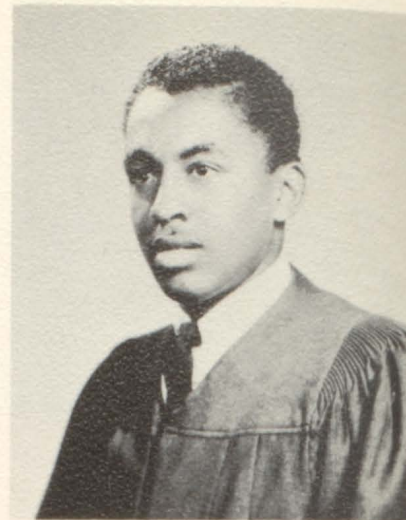

GENERAL EVANS

"Ice" goes for one-word musical selections such as "Wind," "Night," and "Misty." A member of The Clintonians, he's set his sights on becoming a mailman. Biology and U. S. History have intrigued him scholastically. Prize fights on television hold his eye.

BEULAH FEURTADO

Sewing, bowling, ice skating, and badminton have been hobbies of interest to Beulah. Of school subjects she likes English best. Her future plans center on entering a business school. When not studying, she listens to jazz, rock 'n roll, and classical music.

GARDEL FEURTADO

A member of the Soccer and Track Teams, Gardel expects to join another group soon—the Air Force. He likes Spanish and the Spanish Club; also, the Dizzy Gillespie kind of jazz. Gardel has played in Band; lists an interesting hobby: girls.

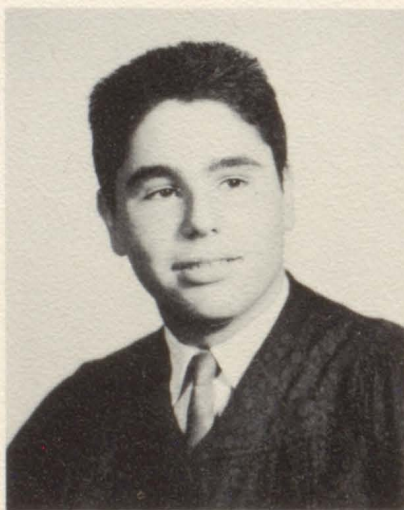

MARSHALL FINE

For years Marshall has used his camera to brighten the Optimist pictorially. An enthusiast for history, the sciences, and English, he wants to keep studying in college. At South Side he's belonged to the Chess, Science, and Photography Club, has given editorial aid to Hilltop Recorder and Optimist.

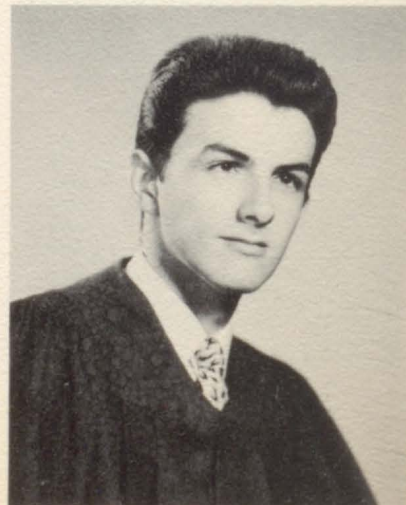

PATRICIA FIELDS

"Dell" aims for future study in a business college. A cheerleader and member of Mixed Chorus and Madrigals, Patricia loves jazz, lists "But Not for Me" as favorite melody. She enjoys dancing the mambo, but is also a serious member of YWCA, NAACP, and the Urban League.

JAMES FLANAGAN

Jimmy's present interests include photography, jazz, Banking Club, basketball, baseball, and girls. His after-graduation ambition is to be a member of the Marine Corps. James says history, physical education, and lunch have been his favorite periods in school. For relaxation: music and TV.

REGINA FONT

"Oh, my goodness gracious!" exclaims petite Regina. She's headed for Park College in Missouri, to specialize in science and math. At South Side "Regg" has been in orchestra, Math Society, Science Club, and Service Club. Geometry, Physics, and English have held her interest, as have boys and tennis.

JOYCE FRIEDY

Senator of Room 2, "Pete" has the ambition of becoming a teacher, and is gathering experience by directing a choir. A member of Garden Club and M.Y.F., she names U. S. History, English, and Speech as her prime subjects. She likes to watch "Mr. Lucky" and "Peter Gunn."

GLORIA FOWLES

Gloria plans to be a singer or teacher. Member of Mixed Chorus and Senior Girls' Glee Club, she studies voice in school, likes classical music, rock 'n roll, and jazz. "Glo" belongs to the Kickball Team and Spanish Club; sings or writes in her spare time.

CATHERINE GARRETSON

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," says "Kitty Kat." Intent on a career of pediatric nursing via Beth Israel Hospital, she boasts membership in Senate, Jr. Red Cross, Optimist Staff, Cheerleaders, sings in Mixed Chorus and Young People's Choir of St. Mark Baptist Church.

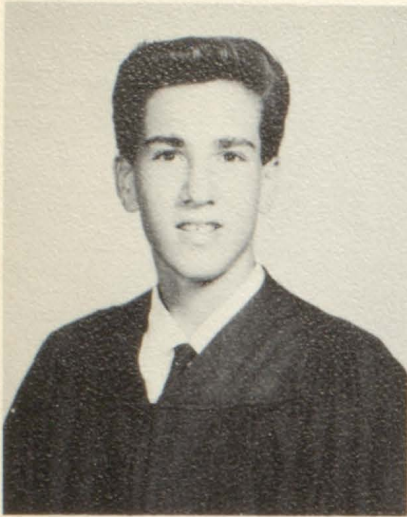

CAROLYN FRANKS

She admires Alan Ladd and Dale Robertson, likes softball and baseball, and is a member of Society A.C. "Mickey" expects to work in an office; hopes to find useful her favorite subjects — Typing, Math, and English. Favorite saying: "That's your business."

MARION GAYMON

"Chip" has been Class Senator, member of Service Club, GO Patrol, Vestavarians, and the Softball Team. She sings in Zion Hill Young People's Choir, loves rock 'n roll and jazz. Marion says of herself: "Can be found on Wednesday nights watching the Washington Carver Gay Blades."

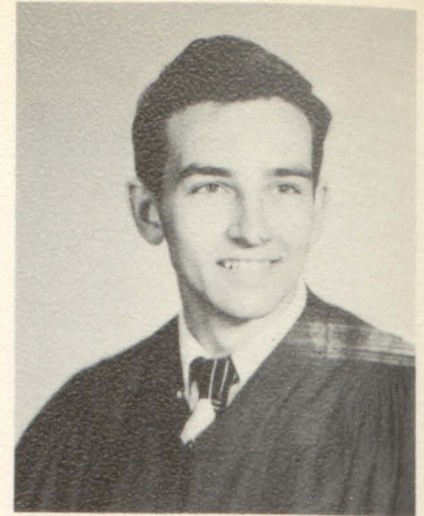

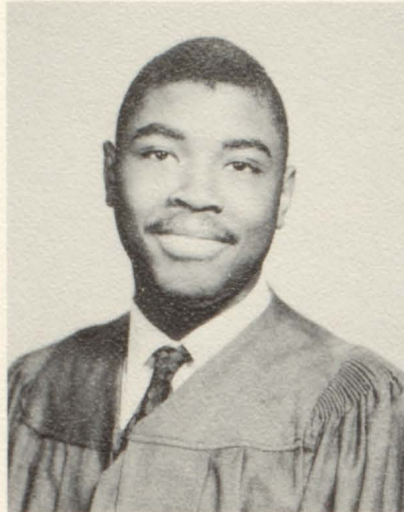

GUY GIBSON

Guy, who belongs to the baseball team, also likes to play basketball. In school (where his favorite subject is lunch) he is a member of the band. Whenever "Twilight Zone," "Alcoa Presents," or "Peter Gunn" are on, you'll find Guy by his TV.

JOHN GIVENS

English and Economic Geography top John's list of school subjects, but he expects to concentrate on other topics when he attends barber school. He's a fan of the football and basketball teams, loves "Maverick" and "Cheyenne" on TV. Sidney Poitier is his acting choice.

EDWARD GOCEK

He's president of Chess Club, a member of Projection Staff. Fishing, boating, and hot-rodding are his outdoor hobbies. Proud of his 1947 Chevrolet, he claims, "The big 'C' will beat anything up to '55!" Mathematical studies fascinate him; will help in college.

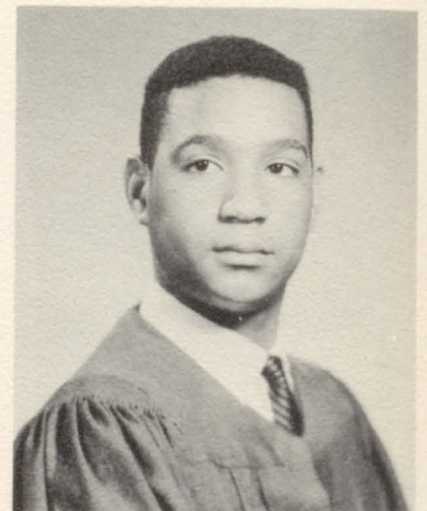

VENICE GOODEN

It's "Little Italy's" opinion that "What you're going to be, you're now becoming." A member of Optimist Staff, she names Stenography and Typewriting as her favorite classes. Singing, skating, kickball, and listening to rock 'n roll are pleasant spare-time activities for this future secretary.

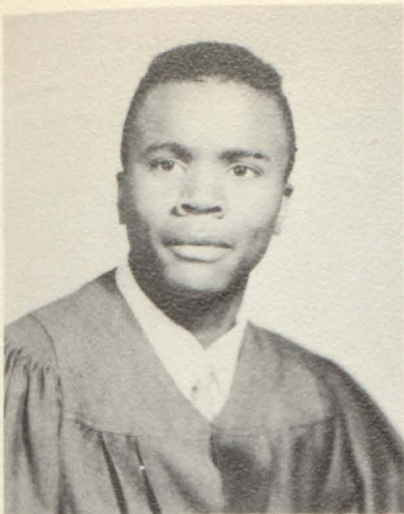

BARBARA GOOD

Typing, History, Machine Operation lead off "Bobbi's" list of subjects. No surprise that she expects to become a clerical typist. "How Could You Call It Off?" is a sample of the popular music she likes. Drawing, sports, TV-thrillers and dramas, and movies entertain her.

WILBERT GRIER

"Will" expects to work in a drug-store and attend college after graduation. He's a fan of progressive jazz, with Nina Simone and Duke Ellington as musical stars. Science and history hold his interest academically; football and baseball in the sports line.

LOUIS GULLY

"Husse" might be safely described as musical: he plays in Senior Band, Dance Band, Orchestra, and the Elks Drum and Bugle Corps. A member of the Soccer Team and the Conservatives, he claims a great love for Dixieland and sleeping. Asked to list his favorite actor, he wrote, "Me."

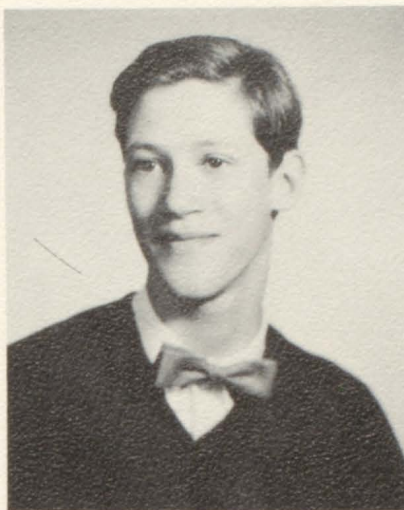

JOCILE HAGANS

"Jo" thinks both rock 'n roll and spirituals are "real gone." She favors tunes like "Alley Oop," "Night," and "Step by Step." Favored are many classes: English, Physical Education, Health, Spanish, Typewriting. Top personalities are Clint Walker and Arlene Francis. "Dig it!" says she.

MIKE GWOZDIK

Mike, whose favorite type of music is rock 'n roll, can be found playing baseball in his spare time. He's a member of the Chess Club. Spanish is his favorite school subject. "The Untouchables," "Hawaiian Eye," and "Home Run Derby" are Mike's choice of best TV programs.

GLORIA HACKETT

Bowling is the hobby of "Pickles," a member of the Optimist Staff. Her goal is the Women's Marine Corps. This choir singer likes classical music and cha-cha. Assistant to the nurse at South Side, she favors history above all other subjects.

THOMAS HAGANS

Tom has been a busy young man, working as a cook, engaging in his hobby of boxing, and singing in his church choir. At South Side his favorite subject has been English, his favorite sport, football. He relaxes to rock 'n roll music and TV.

MERRION HARLEY

Merrion belongs to C. Y. O. and sings in her church choir. Collecting records is her hobby. After graduation, she expects to head for a business school. Favorite sports are basketball and bowling; favorite shows are "The Untouchables" and "Peter Gunn."

ELOISE HARPER

"A person lives as he invests himself in the lives of others" is Taffy's motto. Eloise invests herself in the Aristocratic Debs and the Conservatives, has enjoyed club activities in Spanish Club and F.B.L.A. She reports a yen for eating, jazz and rock 'n roll.

AGNES HARRIS

A future telephone operator, "Blue" loves dancing, singing, jazz, and rock 'n roll. Jackie Wilson and Janie Brown are her musical idols. Membership in Spanish Club, Conservatives S.C., and Blue Angels has not dimmed her interest in TV, sports, movies, and fried chicken with potato salad.

BENJAMAE HATCH

Bennie sings in her church choir, does Service Club work. History and World Geography have been her scholastic favorites. For recreation she prefers sewing, handball, and TV programs like "Peter Gunn" and "Sea Hunt." Jazz is her music. In the future is clerical work.

JOSEPHINE HAWKINS

A fan of rock 'n roll and jazz, Josephine lists "A Lonely Soldier," "Stolen Angel," and "Wonderful World" as her top tunes. She sings in her church choir, enjoys kickball, basketball, and baseball. Music, Driver Ed., and Typing were school favorites. Her goal: nursing school.

KATHERINE HATCHER

Cooking is a hobby that brings much pleasure to "Skire." Being a Senator and singer in Mixed Chorus and Senior Girls' Glee Club have been fun too. Her favorite type of music is spirituals. Other choices: subject — U. S. History; sports — football; TV program — "Tightrope."

BARBARA ANN HAYES

Her favorite song, "You've Got What It Takes," describes "Bobby." Ambitious to attend business school, she now plays on the Girls' Softball Team, enjoys swimming, skating, and basketball. Her clubs are Arona Fawns and Conservatives. Rock 'n roll and modern jazz are Barbara's musical loves.

LOUISE HAYNES

"Lou" practices her motto, "Whatever you do, do your best," in Christian Youth Fellowship at her church, The Conservatives, Jr. Red Cross, F.B.L.A., Service Club, and Optimist Staff. She's been both president and treasurer of Jr. Red Cross and a homeroom senator. College-bound, she cooks and collects pictures.

BETTY HODGE

"Bet" expects to improve the world — the female part — when she graduates from beautician school. At South Side she's been a member of Conservatives and Service Club. Jackie Wilson and Etta James are her musical favorites; "M-Squad," "The Untouchables," "Price Is Right," her TV choices.

MARGARET HENDERSON

A humanitarian, "Cherry" looks forward to a career as a registered nurse. Member of Elks Club and The Conservatives, she loves reading mystery stories, studying English and Speech, playing tennis and bowling. Other choices: spirituals, TV programs "Hawaiian Eye" and "Tightrope," and chili con carne.

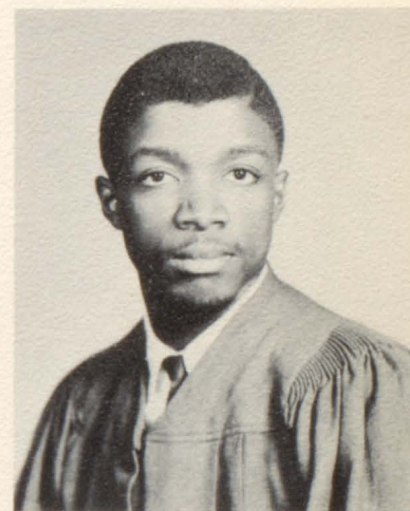

ERNESTINE HUGHES

Collector of jazz albums, dancer of Cha-Cha and The Twist, Ernestine is a lively girl who says, "Hey! Hey!" She's been a representative of Hilltop Recorder, a devotee of track and football. Dina Washington and Rock Hudson are favored personalities.

JESSIE LILLIAN HITE

English, history, and typing have been "Lolly Pop's" favorite subjects. She's helped prepare for a secretarial career by being class secretary. A member of Blue Carnations S.C., Jessie enjoys sports, TV, and movies and—especially—music like "Wonderful World" and "Ooh Poo Pah Doo."

RALPH HUGHES

Known as "Speedy," Ralph tries to achieve the most out of life. In doing this, he belongs to the Cross-Country, Indoor and Outdoor Track Teams, and Mixed Chorus. He likes rock 'n roll and spends his time listening to records. The U. S. Army is his next goal.

BERNICE ISAAC

"Bunny" plans to be a private secretary, but she does quite well now in public as co-captain of the cheerleaders, player on the Girls' Softball Team, member of Service Club and the Conservatives. Modern jazz and rock 'n roll have her allegiance. Solving crossword puzzles is her hobby.

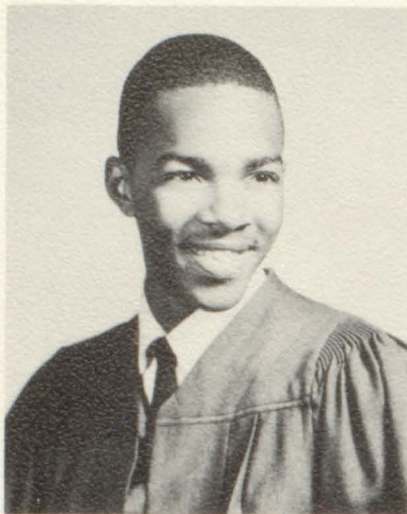

ELEANOR JOHNSON

"Peaches" is serious about her volunteer hospital work; expects to continue from that to study in a nursing school. A Service Club worker, she sings in church choir and our Glee Club. Physics and U. S. History have fascinated her. Listening to records and reading are relaxing.

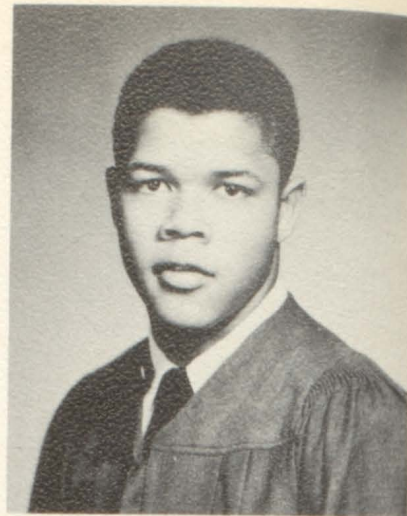

BOOKER JEFFERSON

A member of the Conservatives, Jeff plans to make a profession out of his hobby — track. He belongs, as he puts it, to "all the track teams"; expects to become a physical education teacher. For relaxation, he sings in his church choir and an outside singing group.

EVELYN JOHNSON

Senior Girl Scouts and Junior Leaguers claim "Lyn," an ambitious young lady who plans to attend college and become a teacher. She matches serious subjects like history and science with numerous hobbies: stamp collecting, tennis, golf, listening to jazz and rock 'n roll. A Sinatra fan, too.

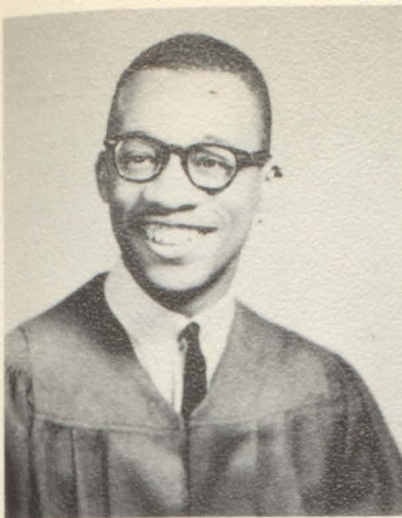

EARL JOHNSON

A member of both football and swimming squads, Earl has interest in music and reading. From the latter comes his favorite quotation: "There is no security on this earth, just opportunity." He lists Algebra and English as top subjects, will watch "Staccato" and Sophia Loren any time.

GLADYS JOHNSON

"Peanuts," who has helped to put your Optimist together, has a pleasant motto: "Reach for a star; you may succeed." We wish her success as she studies to be a nurse in General Hospital, Pas-saic. Members of Mixed Chorus, Senior Girls' Glee Club will remember her with pleasure.

JEROME JOHNSON

Jerry, whose motto is "Always try with all you've got," plans to try in the Marines or Air Force. He's been a member of both football and track teams, also enjoys basketball and rowing. History and English have been his best classes, along with physical education.

MARY ALICE JOHNSON

The Paradise Baptist Church Young People's Choir has Mary as a member, as do the Conservatives and the school Hall Patrol. This Robert Mitchum fan likes "Never Leave Me." Mary loves spending time by a radio or playing tennis. "Live and let live," says our future secretary.

CHARLOTTE JONES

"Always reach for the best," opines Charlotte. She's been active in Conservatives, Mixed Chorus, Jr. Red Cross, and Spanish Club. Sewing, dancing, and listening to jazz are prime ways of relaxing. Physics is the top class; teachers' college is the scholastic goal.

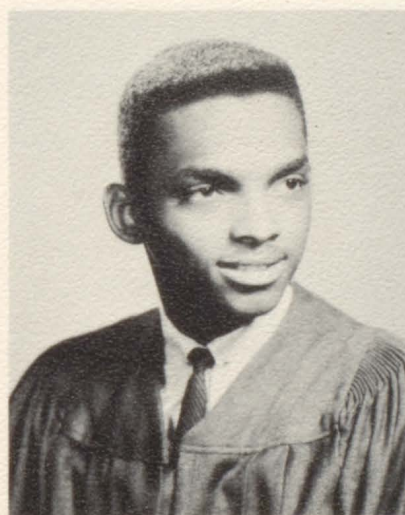

MAE ETTA JONES

Senior Girls' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, and the Girls' Softball Team are South Side activities of Mae Etta. She loves to sing and dance; is a member of the Young Adult Choir at her church. Typing and English list as her school favorites.

RUDOLPH JONES

Indoor and Outdoor Track have used Rudy's athletic skills. He's wild about science, rating Physics and Biology as his top classes, and participating in Science Club. When asked to list hobbies he wrote, "Cars and girls." The gleam in his eye, however, is for college.

DORIS JUDD

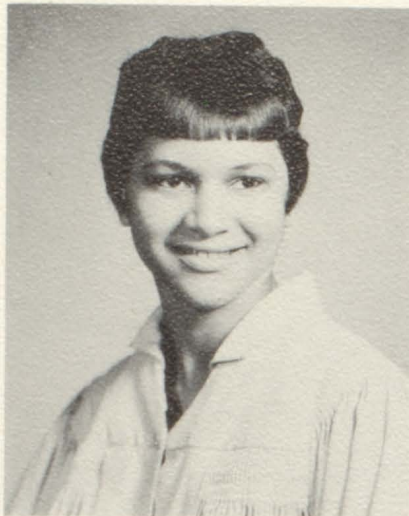

Popular, energetic Doris belongs to the Twirlers, Girls' Softball Team, Senior Girls' Glee Club, Conservatives, and F.B.L.A. A long-time Senator, she's also treasurer of the Aurora Fawns. To all these activities she adds the hobbies of sewing and cooking. Career plans: to be legal secretary.

EDNA KETTLES

A good student of stenography and typing, Edna hopes to teach business subjects eventually. She belongs to the F.B.L.A. and her church's Young People's Choir. Swimming, dancing, and movies fill her leisure time. "Live and let live," says she. Food treat: spaghetti and meatballs.

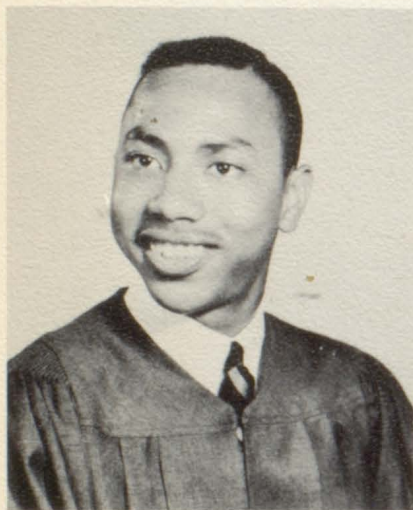

ELIZABETH KASYAN

"Pack a lunch," says friendly Betty Jane. She serves as nurse's aid, finds joy in bowling and dancing. "Stay" and "Lonely Teenager" are tunes for her. Outdoors she prefers soccer and football; for TV viewing, "American Bandstand" and "Twilight Zone." Later, a beautician.

LOIS KINCH

"More power to you" is "Cookie's" motto. She has plenty. GO Secretary, 3A Treasurer, member of the National Honor Society, Twirlers, F.B.L.A., Conservatives, Zelveteers, she still finds time to excell in stenography, bookkeeping, and English—subjects she'll find useful in business school.

MARCELLUS KING

President of the Omegas Athletic Club, co-captain of South Side's football team, an ace of the indoor and outdoor track squads. "Cell" has proved an asset to our school. "Nothing to it," says he, but we know better. Maryland State College is lucky to enroll this gentleman.

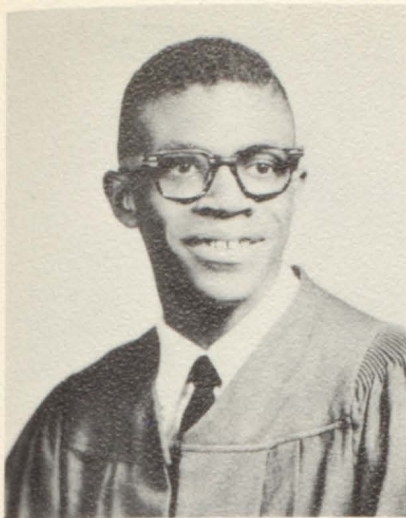

JUDITH KLEIN

ARLENE La BERTH

"Ad astra per aspera (To the stars through difficulties)" is Arlene's motto. She intends to live up to it by attending nursing school, later becoming a physician. A volunteer nurse at Martland Medical Center, she enjoys working in Guidance Office, singing with Mixed Chorus.

GEORGE LA SURE

3A Class President George has a phenomenal list of services and activities: N. J. Model Legislature, N. A. A. C. P., Leaguers, church choir, orchestra, marching band, dance band, mixed chorus, glee club, madrigals, Jr. Red Cross, Math Society, Music Club, Latin Club. Don't forget outdoor track, either. Future? History teacher or lawyer.

PAMALA ANNETTE LIGON

"Grin and bear it" is "Yammie's" favorite expression — one she may use professionally after graduating from Lyons Medical Institution. Singer in Mixed Chorus, Senior Girls' Glee Club, and her church choir, she's in Jr. Red Cross, Optimist Staff, F.B.L.A., and Garden Club. Veep of Jr. Red Cross.

EVELYN LATIMER

"Nippy's" favorite saying is "You're something else." Aspiring to become a clerical worker, Evelyn has shown enthusiasm for U. S. History and Las Munecas Social Club. She sings in her church choir, enjoys jazz and romantic melodies. Writes she, "All sports excite me."

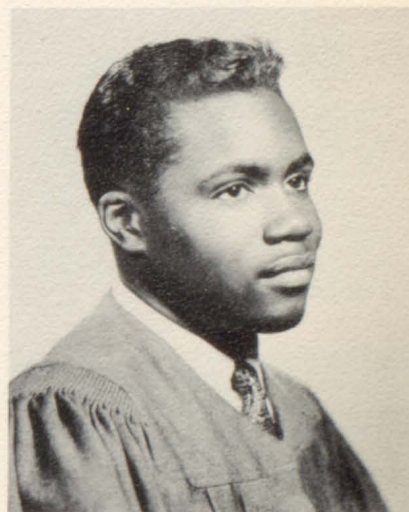

MARY LISHMAN

Homeroom Senator Mary likes stenography, hopes to be a private secretary. She's a loyal member of F.B.L.A., and in her spare time thrills to rock 'n roll. Her musical favorites are headed by "The Way of a Clown," "To the Aisle," and "Kathy's Clown."

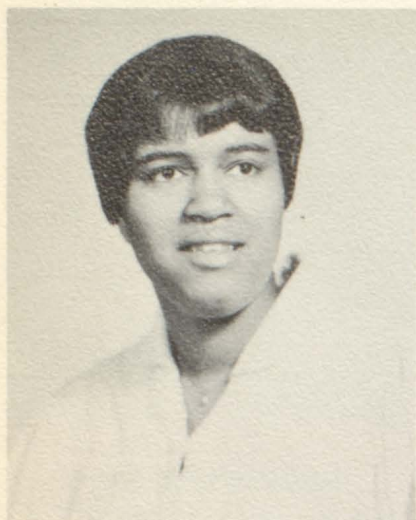

FREDDIE MAE LEE

Business School and marriage are twin goals of this busy South Sider. Her activities include Optimist Staff, cheerleading, Junior Red Cross, Mixed Chorus, and her church choir. A member of 3A Executive Committee and Conservatives, she gets her athletic thrills from kickball and softball.

ARTHUR LOCKE

A former East Sider, Arthur likes South Side's friendly atmosphere. Business Law intrigues him, as does Senior Boys' Glee Club. Arthur's hobby is weight-lifting, his sports enthusiasms, football and track. His TV choices are adventure stories. In the immediate future: prep school.

LENORA MAJORS

Lenora doesn't like "400" people, does approve of sea-food, modern jazz, Latin-American rhythms, and reading. She's been a member of The Vestavarians S.C. and GO Patrol. Kickball and watching TV are spare-time occupations. After graduation, she intends to study further in Girls' Vocational School.

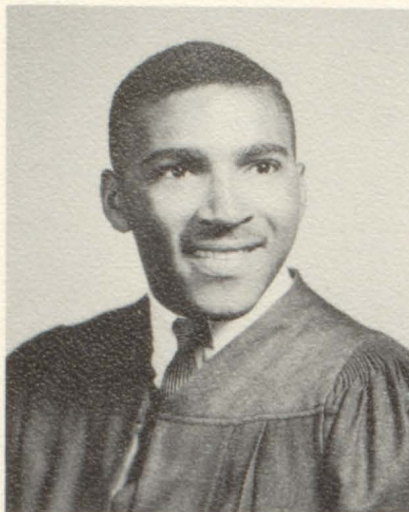

THERESA McDOWELL

Handel's "Messiah" is the musical choice of "Bunny." A member of Mixed Chorus, Jr. Girls' Glee Club, Voice Class, Trinity Temple Festival Chorus, she has sung solos in various churches. Music, Typing, and English are top subjects; she expects to enter a business school.

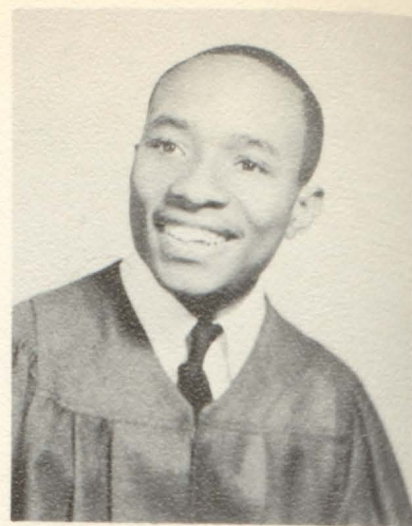

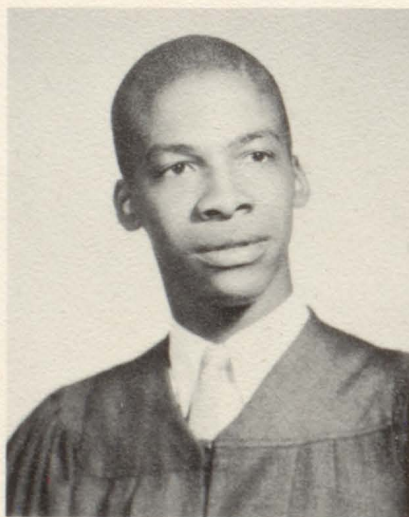

NATHANIEL MARTIN

"What's up?" asks Nate. And, through close study of history, his favorite subject, he's finding out. He plans to pursue the question further at college and become a teacher of history. Co-captain of the football team, member of the basketball squad, he's also treasurer of Omega Phi Upsilon.

FRED McGRIFF

"Hey, hey! Run the game on down!" exclaims "Mac." He's known for his work in Senior Band, Orchestra, and an out-of-school musical group, The Spaniards. Foods, Typing, and U. S. History have been his mainstays at South Side. He hopes to follow graduation with college attendance.

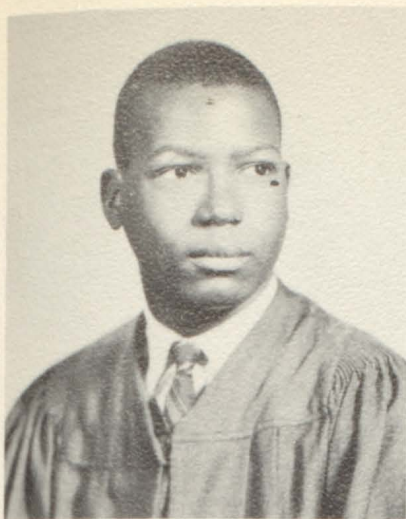

NEIL McDOWELL

A devoted Bible student, Neil plans further training in art. Class Senator McDowell helps run the GO and also does some running in Cross-Country, Indoor and Outdoor Track. He also finds time for membership in the Hill-top Recorder, F.B.L.A., and The Conservatives.

KAREEN McGRIFF

For "Peaches" "Knowledge is power." A future pediatric nurse, she's very active in her church, playing for two choirs and teaching Sunday School. Versatile Kareen styles her own hair, makes most of her school clothes. In addition, she's active in Mixed Chorus, Madrigals, Girls' Glee Club, Jr. Red Cross.

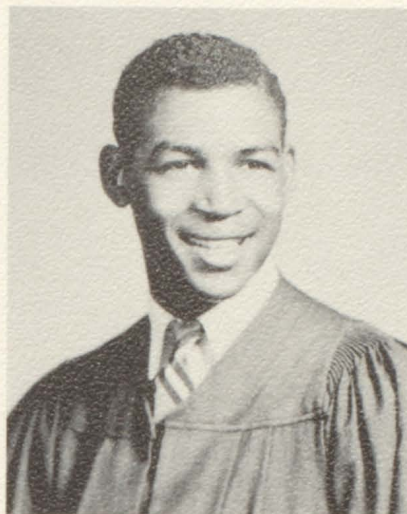

ERNEST McHENRY, JR.

For Ernest, music is the lure. He plays in Dance Band, Senior Band, Orchestra, and a drum corps. Professional musician is the title he aspires to. Law, History, and Biology were top subjects. On TV he likes mysteries and "all kinds of musical programs."

RONALD McNEIL

"Macken Ron" has no definite plans for the future. He's a football and basketball hero, so of course those are his favorite sports. Ronald belongs to "The Samovars" and will listen to any kind of music. His idea of television enjoyment is to see cowboy shows.

CORA LEE McPHERSON

National Honor Society member "Dimples" has been Senator, Service Club worker, and choir-singer at her church. Interested greatly in bookkeeping and stenography, she expects to become a secretary. Reading is her hobby; basketball and volleyball, the sports she likes.

MARY ANN McTERRELL

"Laugh and be happy" is the motto of this future business secretary. Whether as GO Senator, singer in Mixed Chorus, Senior Girls' Glee Club, and the Anta-Tones, secretary of the Tijana Debs, or member of Service Club and Conservatives, "Tami" lives up to this motto.

PAULA MIKSOVIC

A leader in the Girl Scouts and nurse's aid at Martland Medical Center, "Blondie" assists in South Side's school office and health office. She's enthusiastic about dancing, skating, painting, science, and art. Her dream is to qualify for work in psychiatry. Is that why she likes Red Skelton?

MARIAN MILLARD

Geometry, History, and Physical Education have been Marian's mainstays. A member of Junior Red Cross, The Hilltop Recorder, and WBGU Workshop, she's aiming for study at Lyons Institute of Medical Technology. As a jazz enthusiast, Marian favors Art Blakey, Billie Holiday, and Ahmad Jamal.

CRISTINA MORALES

Cristina is enthusiastic about Spanish music and American popular tunes. Examples: "Anciedad," "Quien Tiene-tu-amor," and "Just Ask Your Heart." She's enjoyed Typing and Machine Operations, skating, tennis, and bowling. On TV her favorites are situation comedies, dance programs, and quizzes. Future? Stewardess or typist.

JACQUELINE MOORE

Art and sculpture are well-loved pastimes of Jacqueline, who balances her esthetic yearnings with avid interest in baseball and football. One of our selfless Jr. Red Cross girls, she enjoys adventure and suspense stories, plans to seek her own adventure in military service.

ELEANOR MORGAN

A fan of classical and ballet music, "Princess" plans to work and attend night college classes. At South Side she has preferred mathematics and physical education, enjoyed dancing and drawing. She relaxes by watching TV's "Adventures in Paradise" and "Alcoa Presents."

SHEILA MURPHY

When "Little Murphy" enters business school she'll already have some practical experience — as treasurer of both F.B.L.A., and The Conservatives. A member of GO Patrol and Girls' Softball Team, she's a fan of the track and basketball squads. For relaxation, it's TV.

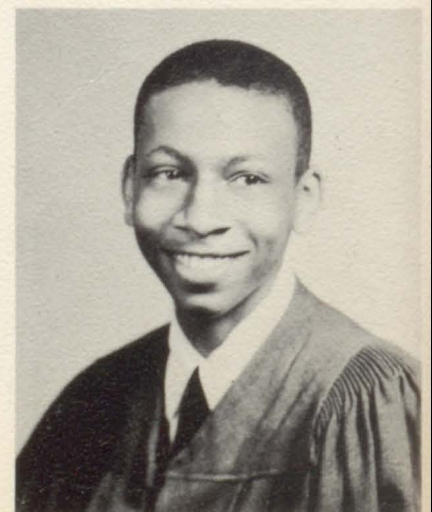

EVELYN MULLIN

Meet the Boosters' president and the editor of the Hilltop Recorder. Everything that Evelyn does, she does well. She's a member of F.B.L.A., Teen Age Advisory Council, and Library Staff. Math, Typewriting, and Biology are favorite subjects; reading, walking, and sewing are favorite hobbies.

KIRK NELSON

A member of Service Club and The Conservatives, "Macken Nel" plans to become a bookkeeper after graduation. He's a fan of Jackie Wilson, likes all sorts of popular and jazz music. Baseball and bowling are sports he watches gladly. Reading is his recreation.

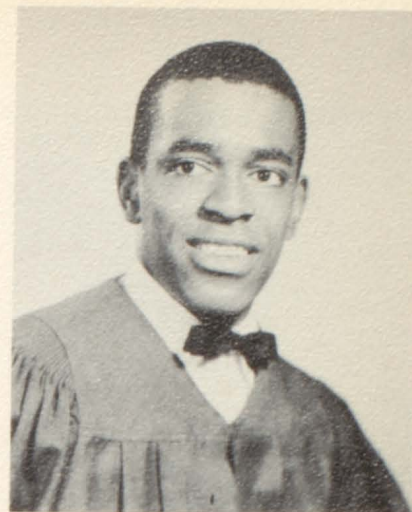

YOLANDA NELSON

"Lonnie's" goal is skyward; she plans to join the Women's Air Force. This musical miss plays in the band, sings in Mixed Chorus. Spanish Club, Photography Club, Aristocratic Debs, and Conservatives all claim her. A jazz and rock 'n' roll fan, she tilts to "Tell Me Today."

MICHAEL OPOLONIK

"Do unto others what you would have them do unto you—only do it first," says "Supersonic." When asked about spare-time activities, he listed girls, baseball, football, and basketball. Music is a more relaxing hobby; any kind pleases Michael.

TAFT ORR

Collecting jazz albums and working on electrical appliances are twin hobbies of Taft, who intends to study at Newark College of Engineering. He favors Biology and Physics, but is able in music too, as his membership in Marching Band, Orchestra, and the St. James Youth Choir demonstrates.

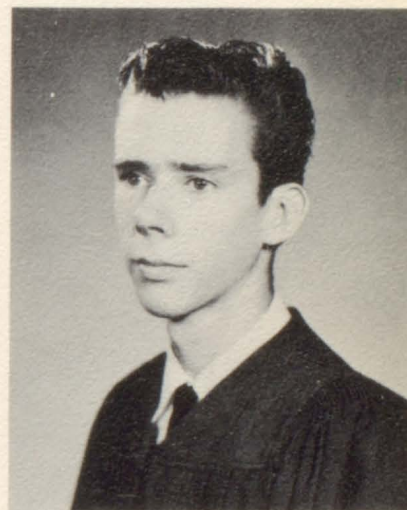

ELEANOR PARKER

To "Plukie" a business career looks good. A member of Service Club, Junior Leaguers, and Girls' Baseball Team, she's wild for rock 'n' roll, loves "Deep Down Love," "The Wind," and "All I Could Do Was Cry." Reading is her principal hobby.

MARY ANN PAMELIA

Stenography and typewriting are Mary Ann's main school interests, and she plans to use these skills throughout life as a private secretary. A member of F.B.L.A., she enjoys bowling and baseball, collects records in her spare time. She has a soft spot for sentimental ballads.

ROBERT PHILBIN

Geometry, Chemistry, and Physics were the scholastic choices of scholarly Bob, who's intent on a college career. At South Side he's been a member of National Honor Society, head of Stage Crew, active in Service Club, and his class executive committee. In addition, he is treasurer of C.Y.O.

SAPHONIA PHILLIPS

"One today is worth two tomorrows," opines "Doll." Her tomorrows will be spent either in business school or modeling school. She's a member of Service Club, Aristocratic Debs, and Conservatives. Bookkeeping's her prime subject; sewing and watching TV, her hobbies. "Tell Me Today" sends her.

GEORGIA PHILLIPS

"Angel" has liked Spanish, Stenography, and Typewriting so well that she's a member of Spanish Club and F.B.L.A. She sings in The Antratonos, plays in Senior Band, is a Hilltop Recorder representative. A sports fan, she expects to become either a fashion model or stenographer.

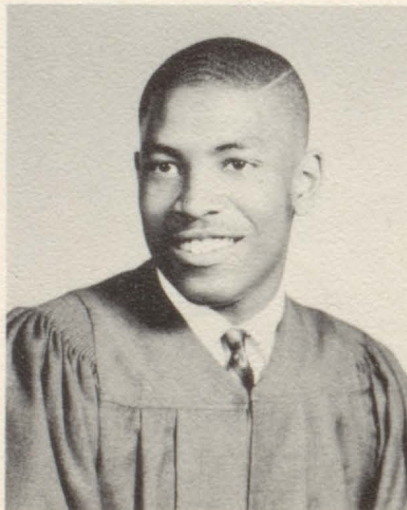

BARBARA PINKARD

Shrimps and rice for the girl with two nicknames: "Bobbie" and "Liz." Her voice has been heard in Madrigals, Mixed Chorus, and Senior Girls' Glee Club. She's well known in C. Y. O. and The Conservatives. A music and dancing fan, she expects to train for beautician career.

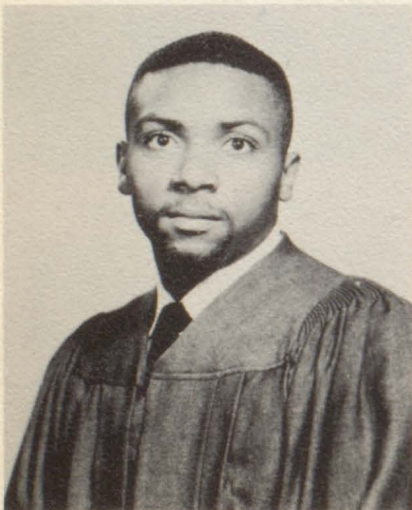

ISAIAH RASBURY

Big "Ike" has made his presence known on both the Basketball and Football Teams, where his cry of "Get it, baby!" is often heard. A member of Omega Phi Epsilon, he dotes on jazz, with "Misty" and "Doodlin'" as favorites. He intends to head for college next.

ROBERT RANKIN

"Rob" likes Math, Bookkeeping, and Accounting; expects they'll come in handy in business school. He belongs to Track Team, Mixed Chorus, Conservatives. To relax, he loves to attend quiet parties or to hear music like "El-lington at Newport." "Run it down to me, baby," says he.

BETTY REUBEN

Bette Davis and Steve Reeves have one thing in common: they are movie favorites of Betty. On TV she prefers "The Untouchables" and "Perry Mason." A future typist, she enjoys Machine Operations and Typewriting; takes time out for dancing and listening to music.

BETTY RICHARDSON

With such scholastic favorites as stenography, typing, and book-keeping, it's natural that Betty should aim at becoming a legal secretary. A member of F.B.L.A., Elks Club, and the Antioch Junior Choir, she relaxes by reading, cooking, sewing, and drawing. Asks she, "You can't beat it, can you?"

SHIRLEY RICHARDSON

Shirley is a serious, socially conscious young lady with a wide range of musical interests: two favorites are "The 1812 Overture" and Ahmad Jamal arrangements. "Mickey's" eye is on a business administration career. Memberships include N.A.A.C.P., Jr. Red Cross, and Hospitality Club. She loves U. S. History, World History.

JESSIE REYNOLDS

Pretty Jessie is busy modeling and singing in Mixed Chorus. A member of Spanish Club and the YWCA, she enjoys swimming and tennis. History and English pleased her most as a student. Future plans point to St. Michael's School of Nursing. Favorite stars: Loretta Young, Clark Gable.

SALVATORE ROMEO

Sal says, "Be cool," plans to become a hairdresser after suitable training. A member of the school Safety Squad, he likes all kinds of art work, jazz, rock 'n' roll, billiards, and basketball. Elizabeth Taylor and Robert Stack are favorites of his.

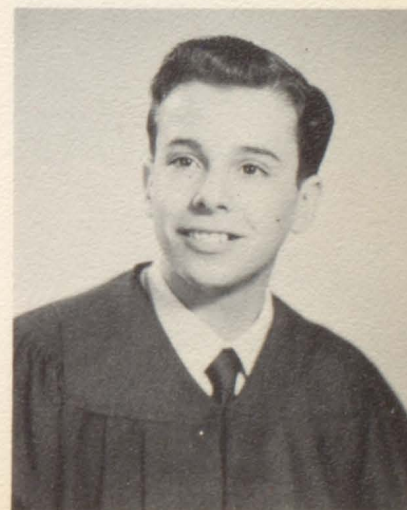

THOMAS ROMEO

Thomas' scientific interest can be seen in his liking for Chemistry, activity on the Chem Staff, and plans to attend Newark College of Engineering. He relaxes by bowling, listening to jazz and rock 'n' roll. His TV "Oscars" go to "Alfred Hitchcock Presents" and "The Untouchables."

RICHARD ROBINSON

"Dickie" says "Oh, man!" to jazz and rock 'n' roll; finds greatest interest in English and Chemistry. Although new to South Side, he's a member of the Basketball Team. A sports enthusiast, Richard goes for handball, ping-pong, bowling, and boxing. College is his goal.

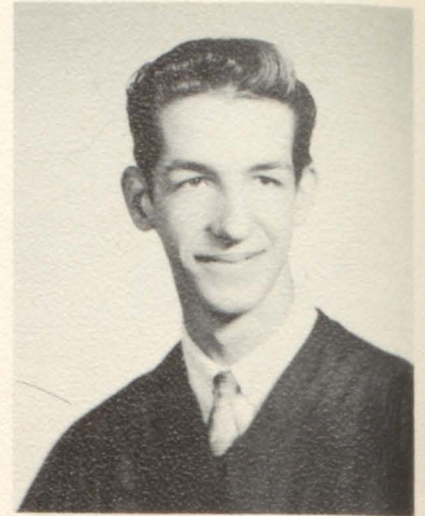

MADELINE LORRAINE
ROYAL

"Maddie" has had fun singing in Mixed Chorus and Senior Girls' Glee Club, painting, and writing poetry. Activities have included Optimist Staff, Y.W.C.A., The Conservatives, and Dramatics Club. She adores shrimp and rice. History, English, and Latin are favored subjects. She intends to be a teacher of history.

MYRA ROSS

"Mike's" inherited love of medicine is shown by service in Beth Israel Junior Volunteers and by her plans to attend the School of Nursing of Rutgers University. She's a familiar sight in Senior Band and Marching Band, a gracious hostess in Hospitality Club. See her on roller skates!

BERNARD RYDZEWSKI

A member of Senate, "Bern" holds that "The early bird gets the worm." Math has been his specialty at South Side; drawing, listening to records, and dancing have been his hobbies. "Cathy's Clown" is the favorite tune; "77 Sunset Strip" and "Hawaiian Eye" are his TV thrillers.

JOAN SALTIS

History and Shorthand are subjects Joannie enthuses about. Her post-high-school plans are to be a secretary. Horseback riding is Joan's energetic hobby; for listening she prefers rock 'n' roll and blues. TV top shows are "Dick Clark" and "The Untouchables."

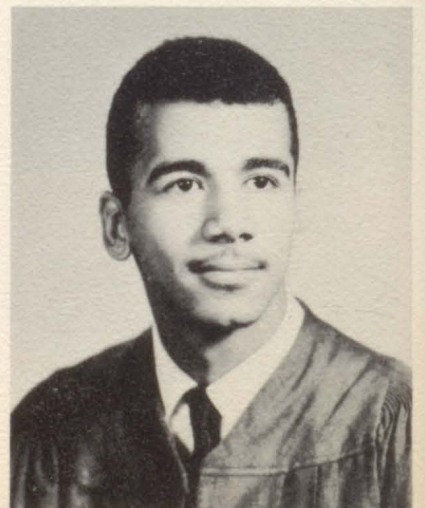

REGINA SAAM

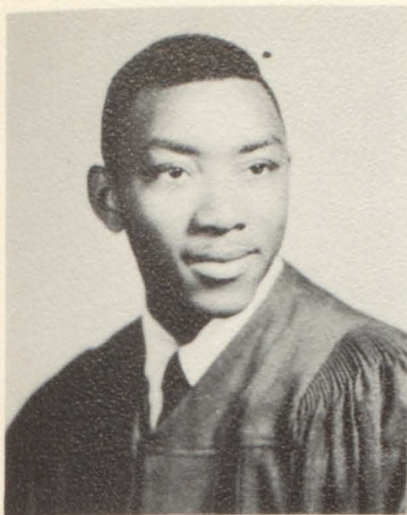

"Reg" wants to become a beautician; likes mathematical subjects and Machine Operations. Jr. Red Cross and Service Club have benefited from her membership. Hobbies are dancing and cooking. Athletically she favors soccer, football, and bowling. "My Hero" is the musical swoon-tune.

JOSÉ SANCHEZ

GO Patrol and Mixed Chorus are Joey's school activities. A member of Conservatives, he likes all kinds of music, long-hair and jazz; lists baseball, basketball, swimming, and football as sports favorites. His liking for accounting leads him to plan attendance at a business school.

BEN SCOTT

Favorite saying: "Have no fear; Ben is here." He is, too—on the following teams: baseball, football, indoor track (captain), and outdoor track. He belongs also to the 3A Club, Chess Club, and The Conservatives. Physics intrigues him in school; jazz and rock 'n' roll in his spare time.

MARLENE SELPH

Nursing school is the goal "Stuff" has set for herself. She belongs to Romperettes, avers a love for jazz, especially "Winds" and "Darling I Love You So." A fan of the football and track squads, Marlene dotes on humorous and action TV shows, hamburgers and hot dogs.

GLORIA SCOTT

Whether as a member of Jr. Red Cross, a singer in the Young People's Choir, or an aid in the English Office, "Scottie" lives up to her motto, "Practice makes perfect." Sewing and cooking are her domestic hobbies. The profession of nursing is her long-range goal.

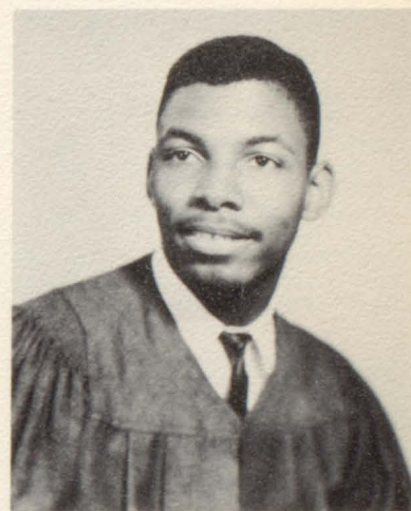

LAURA MAE SHEPPARD

"Hi Doll" is Laura's happy greeting. Optimist Staff member, cheerleader, and softball devotee, "Chubby" claims as her favorite food "everything edible." Her success in geometry, algebra, Spanish, and French promises scholastic success in nursing school. For relaxation, she favors TV, sports, movies, and all types of music.

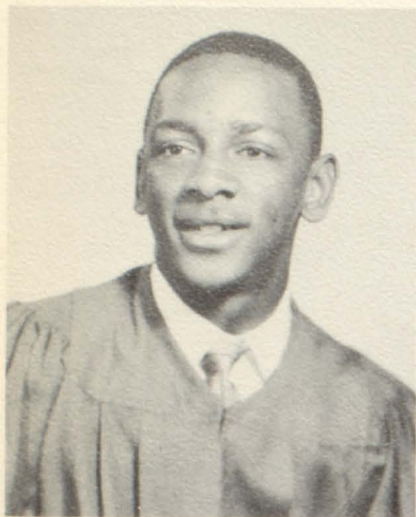

BEVERLY SCROGGINS

"Tell it like it is," advises "Shorty." As she tells it, her favorites at South Side have been English and typing, together with work in Service Club. Music and TV are her recreations. She loves rock 'n' roll and jazz. For her "Nobody Loves Me Like You" is the most.

HADREN SIMMONS

Hadren's a fast singer. Explanation: he runs on Indoor and Outdoor Track Teams; sings in Madrigals, Mixed Chorus, Boys' Glee Club, All-State Chorus, his church choir, and "The Dauphines." History, Spanish, English, and Gym are top subjects. He has that Air Force gleam in his eyes.

BOOKER SIMPSON

"Speak softly and carry a big stick" is "Book's" favorite quotation. But, as an athlete on Soccer, Indoor Track, and Outdoor Track Teams, a singer in The Dauphines, and a member of Safety Squad, he has little time for speaking. He has a date with the Air Force.

ELIZABETH STEED

Rock 'n' roll, spirituals, jazz, and Latin-American music all delight "Liz." She sings in her church's young people's choir, sews in her spare time. Baseball is the top spectator sport. "Let me tell you" is a much-used expression. Her goal is secretarial work.

MARJORIE SIMPSON

Margie's one of South Side's vivacious cheerleaders and a singer in Mixed Chorus and Senior Girls' Glee Club. After graduation, she expects to use her favorite subject, typewriting, as a profession. Leisure moments are given to dancing, music, sports, and television. "What's to it?" she asks.

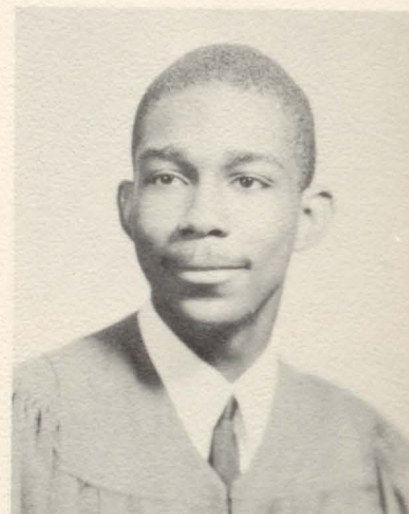

DELORIS STEVENSON

For "Lolo" typewriting and machine operations have been fascinating subjects, suggesting a career as IBM operator. Sewing and drawing are interesting hobbies. "Sure, sure," says she, when asked if she likes music. Other enthusiasms are football and Sidney Poitier.

MARY ELIZABETH SMITH

One of our newer students, Mary aims for a career in office work. She enjoys Spanish Club, dancing, and listening to rock 'n' roll. She tells us that English is her choice subject, "Gunsmoke" the preferred TV show, and Pearl Bailey the singer of singers.

GEORGE SWINTON

George sings in the St. James Young People's Choir, Boys' Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, and the Madrigals. He belongs to the St. James Youth Council. "The Deacon" paints and sculptures as hobbies. Rock 'n' roll, popular, and classical music all please him. A sports fan, too.

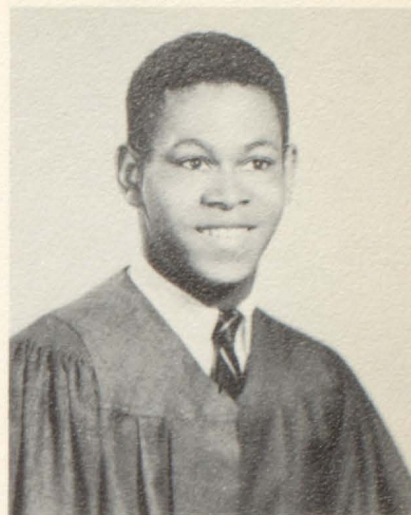

JANET TALIAFERRO

"T.J." lifts her voice in Mixed Chorus and Girls' Glee Club at South Side and in her church choir. A member of Jiveettes, she loves Latin-American rhythms, lists "Dance Mania" as her musical favorite. She hopes to attend Girls' Vocational Tech, to become a seamstress.

SANDRA TALBOT

A future IBM operator or laboratory technician, Sandra has had a busy South Side career: alternate senator, member of class executive committee, Optimist staff, Conservatives, and Jr. Red Cross. She's a loyal cheerleader, loves to sew, play basketball, listen to "all types of music, depending on what mood I am in."

VERNON TAYLOR

"Don't do anything I wouldn't do," admonishes Vernon. A fan of Frank Sinatra and Sandra Dee, he favors love ballads, popular tunes, and rock 'n' roll. He says writing and thinking are his hobbies, but finds time to enjoy baseball and football. President of Optimist.

ODESSA THOMAS

English and Economic Geography head Odessa's classroom favorites. She loves to sing and dance, enjoys spirituals, jazz, and rock 'n' roll. A serious church member, she expects to be a nurse or secretary after graduation. Watching wrestling and basketball delights her.

JOHN TEFFENHART

"Teff" expects to head for an engineering college after a busy South Side career as member of National Honor Society, Safety Squad, class executive committee, and player on the Soccer and Baseball Teams. Among movie stars he favors John Wayne and Kim Novak.

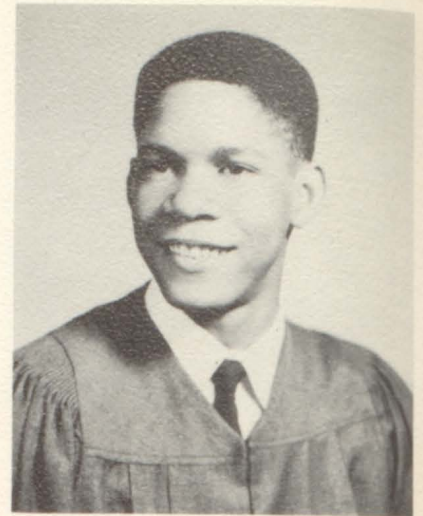

JOSEPH THREET

Joe joined us in his senior year and quickly found many friends at South Side. Fishing's his prime hobby; Geography and History are top subjects. A follower of football and track, he watches TV and movies. Present plans are to become a mortician.

CORDEALIA TINDELL

For "Dice" business school beckons. At South Side she's been a senator, member of Service Club, F.B.L.A., Spanish Club, and Garden Club. Church activities, including choir, vie with sports for her leisure time. History, English, and Health have been top subjects; basketball, swimming, top sports.

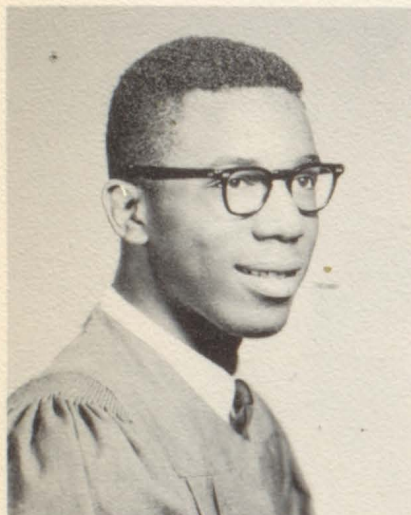

WINSTON TOMLINSON

Coin collecting and ping pong are hobbies of "Sonny." He's been a member of the Soccer Team and a fan of baseball. Musical taste is for rock 'n' roll, with "Sixteen Reasons" as his top tune. Winston likes algebra and English, TV, and movies.

SAUNDRA TURNER

Student Banker, member of Glee Club, Girls' Baseball Team, Romperettes, and Conservatives, "Sandy" loves to listen to jazz vocalists, lists Doris Day as her favorite. She's been class chairman of entertainment committee and a keen student of sales, sewing, and cooking. Sandra plans to be an IBM operator.

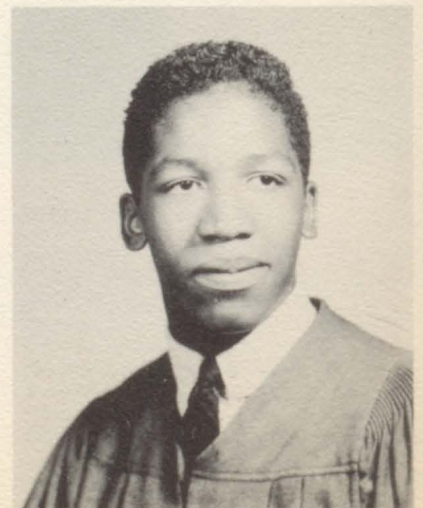

ROBERT TUCKER

"Friar Tuck" sings in his church choir and plays on the South Side Baseball Team. Drawing and the mathematical subjects have interested him in school. "Georgia on My Mind" is his favorite song; baseball, football, and basketball are his favorite sports.

JOHN TYLER

Though sage and serious in manner, John is known by the nickname of "Junior." Track and football are his top sports; he runs on the outdoor track squad. Membership in Mixed Chorus and Senior Band shows his musical bent. For relaxation: rock 'n' roll.

DOROTHY UNDERWOOD

An admirer of Hugh O'Brien and Clint Walker, "Doggie" belongs to the Holy Wonder Fan Club, Jackie Wilson Fan Club, and United Club. Near the record player Dorothy might be enjoying her favorite song, "Ooh Poo Pah Doo." She's joined a singing group outside of school. To be a clerk is her ambition.

LORETTA VAUGHN

3-A Vice-President, member of National Honor Society, worker in Jr. Red Cross, Modern Miss Club, F.B.L.A., and Optimist Staff. Loretta has been a serious and busy student. She likes History and English, expects to become either a teacher or social worker. "How about that!"

GABOR VARADI

"Gaby" has set his sights on medical school. In preparation, he's concentrated on Biology and Physics. An ace of the Projection Staff, he gets outdoor exercise playing on the Soccer Team. His musical taste runs to Chopin and Beethoven, with "Moonlight Sonata" a special favorite.

MYRNA LUZ VELEZ

President of Spanish Club Myrna has served her fellow students as a member of Library Staff and singer in Girls' Glee Club. Above all studies she ranks Biology and Music. Reading's her prime hobby, but she has some interest in Ricky Nelson. Future job: beautician.

LORRAINE VAUGHN

"Cool enough." Veep of both F.B.L.A. and Spanish Club, Lorraine is an avid rock 'n' roll fan, a member of the Girls' Softball Team, and a follower of the football and basketball squads. Her hobby is reading; her ambitious dream is to become a social worker.

JOYCE VITO

A future business machine operator, "Jo" has especially enjoyed typing, bookkeeping, and history. A member of Jr. Red Cross, she likes dancing, reading, kickball, and rock 'n' roll. As a fan of American Bandstand, Joyce thrills to "Swinging in School." "Empty kettles make the most noise," says she.

PAULETTE WARD

"You can make it if you try," opines "Paule." Member of Optimist Staff, she's served on her class executive committee, belonged to N.A.A.C.P. and Conservatives. Reading, jazz, and sewing fill in leisure hours. History and English are prime subjects. Business school next.

BARBARA WIGGINS

President of 'Conservatives, Vice-President of Vestavarians, "Babs" is also a twirler, player on Girls' Softball Team, and a singer in Mixed Chorus and Madrigals. Steno and Typing prepare her for career as IBM machine operator. "Don't let the sun catch you crying," sings she.

ANNIE MARY WARE

For "Mae" the question is, "What are you doing today?" Well, today she's a member of the Future Business Leaders of America, enthusiastic for history, TV, baseball, wrestling, and movies. Susan Hayworth is her particular star. After graduation she expects to study nursing.

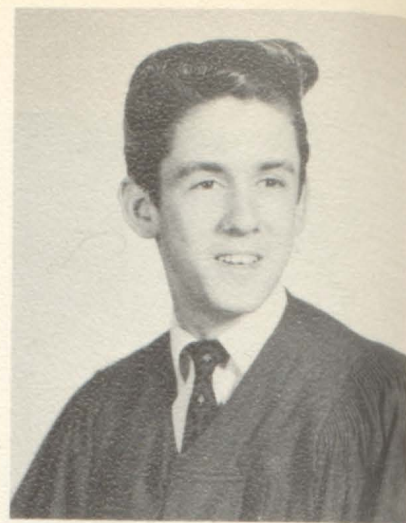

RAYNORA WIGGINS

Junior Leaguer and member of Senior Girls' Glee Club, "Ray" hopes to attend a business school after graduation. She likes all types of music, but swoons to "Hello, Young Lovers." Sewing and reading are spare-time activities; English and Record Keeping the preferred subjects.

MIRIAM WILHELM

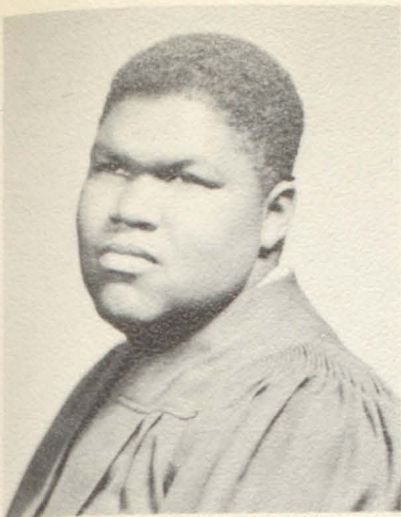

"I have won trophies and medals for expert swimming," writes Miriam. "I have won awards for dancing, too," she adds. Naturally, her goal is to become a teacher of physical education, with Panzer College for her training. For quiet relaxation she watches "Band Stand" on TV.

JAMES WATKINS

"Let me clue you" says "Jim." A future mechanical engineer, he's worked on Stage Crew, been a top student in Geometry, Trig, Physics, and Chemistry. Bowling and skating are sports he participates in; baseball's the game to watch. "Tonight, Tonight" is the song for him.

JAMES WILLIAMS

"Bo-Bo," a new South-Sider, expects to become a bookkeeper. Baseball's his hobby; he belongs to the Charlton St. Raiders Baseball Team. "Chain Gang" is the musical favorite. James' TV listening habits are serious: political programs, information shows, and drama. Broderick Crawford's his star.

HOLLY WILSON

Service Club regular, Holly may often be found at the Hillside P.A.L. or the Twin City Skating Rink. A future model, she lists history, geography, and typing as her best subjects. Favored in TV shows are "Hawaiian Eye," "The Alaskans," and "The Untouchables." She's a Cagney fan.

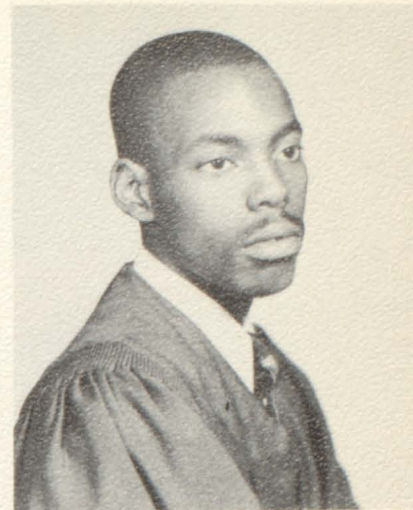

SANDRA WRIGHT

"Sissie" expects to study secretarial work at Drake College. Skating, sewing, and playing jazz albums delight her. She's sung in Jr. Girls' Glee Club and in her church choir. Spectator sports are baseball and football. Serve her French fries, shrimps, and cole slaw.

CAROL WITTMANN

To be a secretary is the goal of "Red." Secretary of her 3A class, she's a member of F.B.L.A., a devotee of Typewriting and Stenography. She enjoys collecting records, bowling, and softball. Songs close to her heart are "Mr. Lonely" and "Let's Start It Over Again."

RALPH WITCHER

A future student of Newark Tech, Ralph answers to the nickname of "Junky Shirt." He loves music, sings in Boys' Glee Club and Mixed Chorus, and enjoys listening to jazz. "One Never Knows" is his top tune. Athletic favorites are track and basketball.

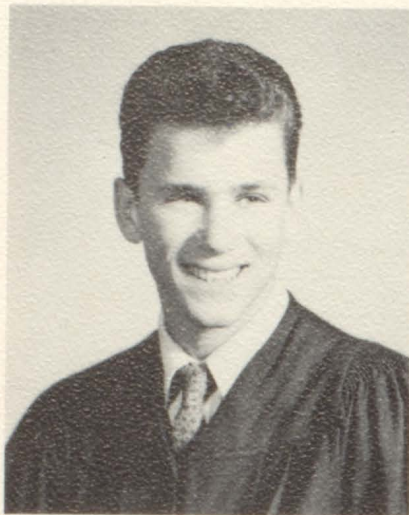

LILLIAN YEE

Petite and pretty Lillian spends much time skating and swimming, but her favorite sport is baseball. Dancing and sewing get her vote for most liked school subjects. She'll dance rock 'n' roll or jazz. Lillian is undecided about her future, but knows what actor she prefers—Tony Curtis.

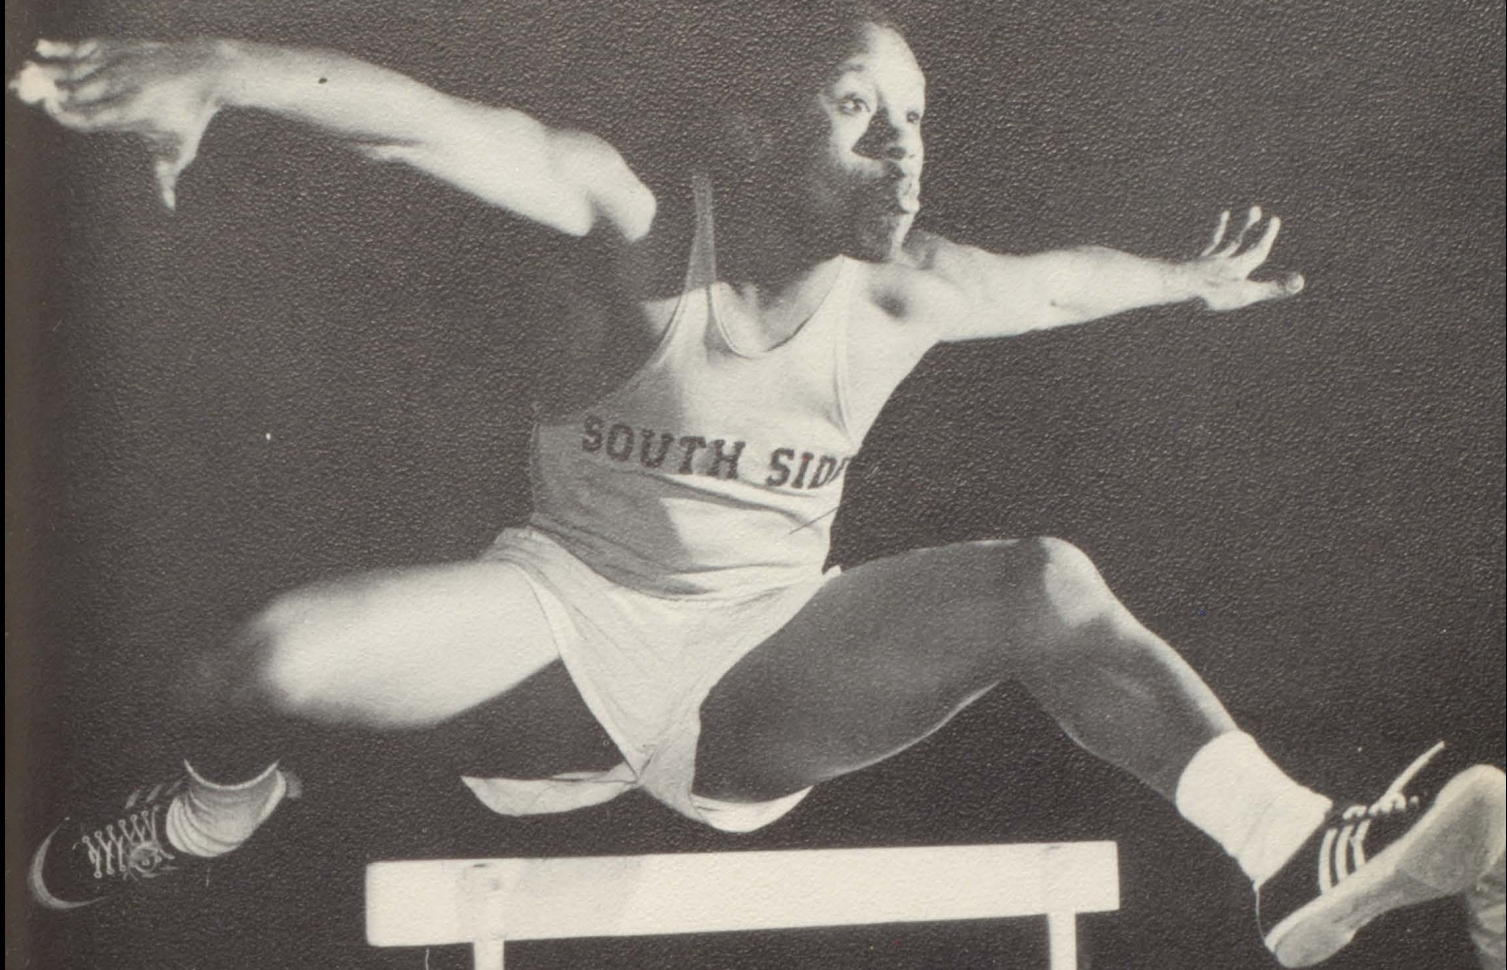

BERNARD ZUCKER

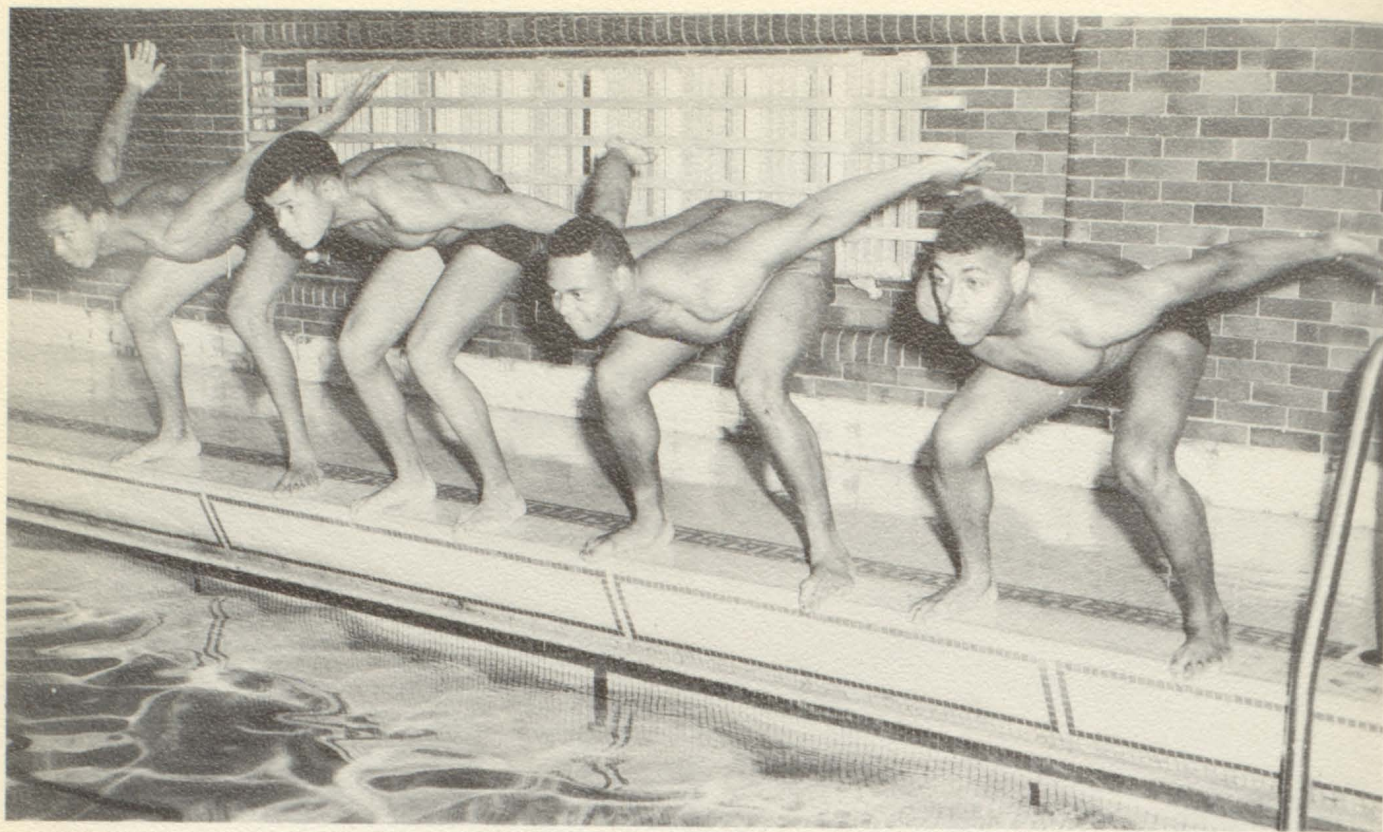

"Zeke" found that physical education was his favorite subject, for he loves all kinds of sports, though golf is the prime hobby. Musical delights are calypso, popular songs, and rock 'n' roll. TV's "Alfred Hitchcock Presents" and "Twilight Zone" have a fan in Bernard.
